THE DALLAS POST, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 8, 1937

POST SCRIPTS

INDIANS LIFE WAR

The pleasant weather last Saturday afternoon attracted us to the Blooms Burg Fair where, besides seeing a number of Dailas folk, we ran up a gainst a bunch of Indians who were selling hand-made trinkets, which apparently had been shipped from the reservation to be stamped and wrapped by a famous Chicago novelty firm. Saturday, you may remember, wasn't a particularly promising day. After a week of glorious weather, the last day of the fair brought overcast skies. Then, about noon, the sun burst forth D. T. H. S. In First and people began jamming into the fair grounds. It was perfect weather, and the Indians were doing swell business. They would sell their trinkets Sem Jayvees Play Borough; while the crowd was good and when it began to thin they would begin to thump their tom-toms and dance what they announced was the "Snake Dance", and another crowd would football teams will be playing home retains its religious and racial pregather. We were standing well up this week-end, the best gridiron fare judices, but it intends to concentrate front, watching the rhythmic spasms the local fans have had this year. of the Red Men, when we heard the us. "Why?" we asked. "Well," said the stranger, casting his eyes over supposed to be a sure prayer for rain."

About the most interesting thing in The Post these days is the weekly installment of William Penn Ryman's many people speak to us about things they've read in it. This week Mr. Ryman describes some of the old Fourth of July shindigs and pays tribute to John Hazletine, whose selections on those celebrations.

Shortly after we read the proof we mentioned that this week's installment "He was my great-grandfather," he said. We asked him if he had read Mr. Ryman's account of Mr. Hazle tine's mastery of the fife. Of course Day picnics here 100 years ago.

mands our profoundest respect for his amazing knowledge of the history of this section. We have sat dumbly while old timers drew old takes from NYA Aid Locally their memories but we have never met anyone as young as Mr. Hazletine who could match him for authoritative information about the early days

He is a member, of course, of one oldest and best respected families of this section. His great-grandfather, John Hazletine, was the youngest of than one party hereabouts a century for 1937-'38. ago as a result of his brother's 'ies-Mr. Hezletine estimates.

Until this week we never knew that ally about the school. Dallas almost had a tuberculosis sanitarium once. In 1897 the Luzerne Dallas Borough, Dallas Township, County Medical Society indorsed a Kingston Township and Lake Townplan to construct a sanatarium here. ship received more than $2,000. This Dr. Johnson, the scholarly editor of year, as the result of a 75 per cent. by-pass. the Wilkes-Barre Record, was one of slash in the State and a 16 per cent. the Wilkes-Barre Record, was one of the movement. The plan slash in the county, the four schools that these few sentences might be Orient. They knew personally many didn't fade permanently until about will received only $1,736.70. 1921, when the county decided to use the White Haven sanitarium.

With a tardiness that is somewhat disi'ilusioning, "Life", which makes Friday of each week bright for us, (Continued on Page 8)

BERT HILL ELECTED DIRECTOR IN PLACE OF LATE ASA LEWIS

Herbert Hili, Shavertown florist, was elected a director of the Dutch Mountain Clay Products Co., Inc., this week, to fill the vacancy left by the death of Asa E.

Mr. Hill will serve with the group of local men who are devloping valuable clay deposits near Lopez, on the old Daddow farm.

The company announced this week that the Blaw-Knox Co. of Pittsburgh is preparing to erect the building which will house the machinery at the cay deposits and other preparations for production are being rushed by Bert Wolliver, plant superintendent.

Home Game Today

Ashlev At Trucksville: Lehman Away

Three of this section's high school

Topping the week-end schedule in gentleman next to us snort. What's interest will be the Dallas Townshipwrong?" we asked. "Some one ought Factoryville contest on the township whom were big shots in the hooded to stop them," he said, snorting more field this afternoon. Coach Doll's e- order ten years ago, are charting their vociferously. It looked harmless to leven, which won only one game last course carefully, in the hope that by year, has been creating somewhat of avoiding the pitfal's which brought the stranger, casting his eyes over the crowd, "I happen to know about that dance. That one they're doing is that dance. That one they're doing is West Pittston, both teams in an ad- for the secret society. mittedly higher class than the local township halfback, who is given credit ing Dallas a decade ago. Many promfor a bit of Dallas Township's show- inent men were affiliated with the History of Dallas on page 6. A great ing against West Pittston last Sat- weird conclave. At first the scattered urday. West Pittston won, 25 to 20, members held their membership a but Mahler's brilliant play late in the dark secret, but as its power grew game almost changed the outcome.

the fife were a traditional feature of ranging from twelve to forty yards, Mahler carried the ball across twice. over on the next play. In the last ceremonies. mentioned a John Hazletine. "He minute of play Mahler intercepted a must have been a relative of yours, wasn't he," we asked. Ralph smi'ed. Pittston team before he was downed tions. Accommodating Klansmen stop-

Borough Plays Sem

Dallas Borough, which made a bad Ralph had and, what's more, he owns start last week, bowing to Factorythe very fife with which his great- ville, 20 to 0, will play its first home grandfather thrilled the Independence game this afternoon (Friday) when it entertains the Wyoming Seminary Mr. Hazletine, incidentally, com- Junior Varsity on McVeigh Field. Coach Tinsley of Dallas felt the big (Continued on Page 8)

Cut $318 For '37

Four Schools To Get Less For Worthy Pupils Who Need Help

A slash in NYA appropriations will thirteen children. It was the oldest make itself felt in four local school of the thirteen, Amos, who taught him districts, where young people who to play the fife, and John's swift fin- have been receiving government aid gers and gay tunes enlivened more will have to get along on $318.90 less

One of the least-known of the Fedsons. Today Ralph treasures three eral heip plans the National Youth old files from those days. One of the Administration makes it possible for instruments is at least 150 years old, worthy pupils to continue school by paying them for part-time jobs, usu-

Last year worthy young people of

The appropriations for this year, compared with last, follow:

		'36-'37	'37-'38
t	Dallas Borough	$ 280.00	$235.20
	Dallas Township	391.60	328.94
,	Kingston Township	1,168.00	981.12
	Lake Township	216.00	191.44
_

MOTORMAN RECALLS OLD NAMES ALONG DALLAS TROLLEY ROUTE sed by a particularly bad condition. 'Cars' (ined both sides of the street

Barre, the other day, we got to alk- too, he said. in this region then. He said no, but histories he knew where they all lived.

Evidently feeling our discomfort, Mr. changed the name. of its length because of the fourteen be they just got tired of the old ones. I "Is there any redress?"

| slaughter houses on its banks. That hand line, and just there the pave Riding down on the trolley to Wilkes used to be the name of Shavertown, next to the car tracks is broken, making with the motorman, J. B. Rood. According to Mr. Rood Shavertown which one car after another was forc-Mr. Rood has been on the Harvey's was Toby's Creek, Luzerne was Mill ed to settle. The road was slippery Lake line for seventeen years. We Hollow and Sweet Valley was Pleas- from rain and the cars forced to skid thought he ought to know everybody ant Hill at some time during their out of the rut past the aforesaid truck.

Baffled we were quiet for a while, localities was the present Oakdale this perilous feat, but much more so pital on Sunday and has been under grade.

Rood relented enough to point out We wondered if Mr. Rood knew the roads which his taxes are supposed to it is still suffering from partial para- Among the other local youngsters who ous as possible in soliciting subscrip-Toby's Creek and explain that it used reason why the other towns had their keep in repair? Could we sue the lysis. to be called Bloody Run along some names changed, but he said no, may- County, the town or the State?

Ku Klux Klan Eager To Regain Its Lost Power

Spotlighted By Black Affair, Klan Drives For New Members

TEN YEARS DORMANT

Fiery crosses may blaze again on the hills above Dallas if the Ku Klux Klan, which has been spotlighted by Klansman Hugo Black's appointment to the Supreme Court, succeeds in its efforts to regain its onetime power

Far from being dead, the Klan today numbers many local men as its members. Reliable sources informed The Post this week that the Ku Klux Klan is gaining new strength in this

The Klan which is rising from the ashes today, however, is a different one from the one which claimed so many local men as members in the middle 1920's. It is as strong as ever for what is called "100 per cent Americanism" but its leaders are emphatic in forbidding any violence. It this time on a holy war against Communism and Fascism.

Leaders in the revival, many of

Once Powerful Here

The Ku Klux Klan had tremendous All eyes will be on Mahler, speedy power in the rural sections surroundand it gained more and more members Ripping through the line for gains the Klan shed some of its secrecy.

Occasionally Klansmen saluted each other boldly in public. In Forty Fort then broke away for a thirty-yard a whole army of white-hooded Klanswere talking to Ralph Hazletine and we thought he'd be interested. We township quarterback, could take it even invited the public to some of its

Such public demonstrations were ped cars, made a brief examination of the occupants and directed them to a watch the ceremony, the climax of which usually was th burning of a huge cross which had been wrapped in gasoline-soaked burlap bags. The only restriction was that visitors ould not turn their head taking part in the ritual.

At one time the Klan was a dominant factor in local elections and there (Continued on Page 8)

Patience Tried By Luzerne Pave

Letter - Writer Describes Traffic Tangle This Week

Voicing the sentiments of hundreds of motorists who pray for a by-pass, a Dallas woman who experienced Lunight has sent the following communication to The Post.

Editor: "Is there no redress?

tant people, key men in the county. We have had thousands of words lopments prevent. written on the subject of the Luzerne foregone pronouncements.

But it seems to the long-suffering anese conflict. public that forms the continuous stream of traffic through Luzerne that the project promised his community Fall Partially has gone as dead as the proverbial door nail

"Any one coming through Main street, Luzerne, on Tuesday evening of this week must have been impres- Nine-Month-Old Child Falls is used as a poiling place.

,'Cars lined both sides of the street A truck was parked inside the righting a small but effective rut into

"It was frightening in the extreme But the quick change artist among to see cars preceding ours accomplish

ST. PAUL'S DEDICATES ORGAN ON SUNDAY

SECOND CENTURY OF LIFE IS UNDER WAY FOR HANNAH LOOMIS

Mrs. Hannah Loomis of Tunkhannock is well started on the second century of her life today.

Yesterday she celebrated her 101st birthday anniversary at her home in Tunkhannock. Hundreds of greeting cards flooded her home at 56 Putnam street and scores of friends came to pay their personal

Mrs. Loomis was born in Lymanville, Susquehanna county. A freak storm on the night of her birth, October 7, 1836, blanketed the earth under three feet of snow. She can remember wolves howling around her father's home. She can remember, too, when the trip from Lymanville to Wilkes-Barre was a week's journey.

She lives with her daughter Mrs. Virginia L. Leighton, who is in her seventies.

Gibsons Arrive

parking place from which they could Left Here In August After Spending Summer With Washburns

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray Gibson and their two children, who left the hooded men and women who were here in August boung for Japan, have arrived safely in their home in Tokio. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson spent the summer here with Mrs. Gibson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Washburn of Idetown. Mr. Gibson is a veteran representative of the Bethlehem Steel Co., in the Orient.

The Washburns have received no direct word from the Gibsons since they sailed from Honolulu but Mr. Gibson cabled his home office upon arrival and the news was relayed to the Washburns, who are anxiously awaiting further reports of the conditions the Gibsons found in the Orient.

As far as can be learned Mr. and Mrs. Gibson have made no changes in zerne traffic at its worst on Tuesday their plans, which were for them to music fund. make their home in Tokio, where they had lived for several years before returning to this country for a holiday. Mr. Gibson also had plans to visit "We have had statements by impor- Shanghai this month and presumably wil's carry out those plans unless deve-

Shortly before they left, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson graciously told a Post re-"I wish it were possible to think porter about their experiences in the fanning a flame already kindled by the of the figures whose names have been important in news of the Sino-Jap- Rice street will not be available as a warm invitation to all persons who are

Paralyzes Baby

From Bed; Condition Serious

Partially paralyzed as the result of a fall from a bed on Sunday afternoon, Ralph Fitch, nine-months-old son of Mr .and Mrs. Ralph Fitch of Parrish street, Dallas, was still in a serious condition yesterday.

bed and struck on the back of its neck. Lee, Donala Atkinson, Thomas Atkin be reported promptly to The Post.

To Dedicate New Organ On Sunday

Prof. E. H. Bennett To Play Recital At Evening Program

The congregation of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Shavertown will demorning at 11.

Rev. Herbert E. Frankfort, pastor, ing as his theme "Music, A Universal traffic they must carry in the summer. Language" designed to show the versatility of the instrument. Mrs. Benjamin Rhorer, oloist at Emmanuel Lutheran church, Lancaster, will sing several solos.

y Wagner, "Reverie", C. Jacob-Bond las for a new highway. Eddy; "Jubilate Deo", Silver; Impro-Evening Star", Wagner; "Marche Solennelle", Lemaigre.

Weighs Only 300 Pounds

The Hammond organ is a recent street to join Lake street at its juncdevelopment, having been presented tion with Machell avenue formally to the musical world in April, and the range equals that of any pipe vey's Lake considerably. organ. It has no pipes or reeds, no air pressure system or vibrating PTA To Enlarge parts. The console is smaller than that of the conventional upright piano. It weighs barely 300 pounds. The program Professor Bennett has friends of the St. Paul's congregation an opportunity to hear the unusual instrument at its best.

Vespers will be entirely musical in selected will give members and the offering will be taken for the

Request County

Polling Place In Future

polling place next month unless the interested in the schools, regardless polling quarters, borough council de- ers. cided on Wednesday night.

authorized to inform the County Com- son, vice-president; Mrs. Lewis Le-

Mundy Promises Road Contract By Year's End

No. 41

Says By-Pass Construction May Not Start Before Spring

FUTURE PLANNING

State Senator Leo C. Mundy informed directors of Wyoming Valley Motor Club this week that the contract for the long-awaited Luzerne by pass will be awarded before the end of this year, but construction probably will not start before Spring.

Senator Mundy, chairman of the club's road committee, assured Norman Johnstone, secretary, that the contemplated highway improvements in Luzerne are foremost among the road projects he is seeking for Luzerne County.

Negotiations between the State Highway Department and Wilkes-Barre Railway Corp. are understood to be the chief cause for delay now. Earlier in the year Dr. Mundy said the by-pass would be started yet this

See Super-Highway

With fair assurance that the much needed Luzerne by-pass is well on its way toward construction next year, the groups which have crusaded for the improvement for the last ten years are aiready considering future highway developments in this section.

With the Luzerne problem solved the worst link in the Dallas-Wilkesdicate its new Hammond electric or- Barre highway will be between gan at a special service on Sunday Trucksville and Dallas, where motorists have the choice of following the hilly route over Mt. Greenwood or the winding road through Shavertown, will preach the dedicatory sermon, us. both too narrow for the volume of

If the by-pass is laid over part of the right-of-way of the Wilkes-Barre In the evening Prof. E. H. Bennett, Railway Corp. the traction company organist and choir director of Kings- will abandon its street car service and ton M. E. church, will play a program substitute busses. This will leave the right-of-way available for future highway construction and Wyoming Valley Motor Club/already has discussed with officials the advisability of Prof. Bennett's program follows: planning to use the street car right-"Elegy", Lemaigre; "Pilgab is Charus" of way between Trucksville and Dal-

By that plan the new road would visation, D flat, E. H. Bennett; "To begin at the end of the present cona Wild Rose", MacDowell; "Pomp and crete near the Mt. Greenwood station Safely In Japan Circumstance", Elgar; "O Thou Su-following the traction company's right of way through Shavertown and Fernbrook and come into Dalias along Toby's Creeb, below Main street. The new highway would cut across Main

> In some distant day that super-1935, at Rockefelier Center. The res- highway may be further improved by ponse to its performance was im- leaving the present road out of Dallas mediate and since then thousands of and cutting across the fields to join instruments have been placed in pub- the present road at the Robinson lic auditoriums, schools and churches. Farm, a route which would shorten The tones are generated electrically the distance between Dallas and Har-

Scope Of Work

Borough Unit Establishes Card System For Members

As a part of its drive to enlarge the scope of its work, Dallas Borough character at St. Paul's on Sunday and Parent-Teacher Association plans to sponsor a number of interesting lectures and entertainments this winter and is seeking new members.

In the past the PTA has been financed by a casual system of dues which were fixed at ten cents a month. In To Pay Borough were fixed at ten cents a month. In the next week a new plan will be put into effect whereby members will pay fifty cents dues for the year and re-Council To Get Rent For ceive a printed membership card, signed by the treasurer.

The next meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association will be held in the high school on Monday night Oc-The Dallas Borough building on tober 18. Officials have extended a county pays for it, as it does for other of whether they are parents or teach-

Officers of the local PTA are Mrs. William Niemeyer, secretary, was Reese Finn, president; H. L. Tennymissioners that in the future rent will Grand, second vice-president; Mrs. be asked when the borough building Richard Templin, secretary; Arthur Dungey, treasurer.

JUVENILE SALESMEN LIKE 350 FREE GIFTS OFFERED BY POST

Some future coach of Dallas Bor- son, Donald Still, Peynton Lee, Harold candidates if all the youngsters who balls. The baby was taken to General Hos- are after Post footballs make the occupying ourselves by shifting from which was successively Pritchard's for us to experience it ourselves. At observation all week. At first it was Tops among the juvenille subscriptowns about Dallas. They should be one side of the car to the other as the Corners, Wagner's Corners, and final- whose door would the fault lay if a reported the child had infantile paradoors opened behind our back to let ly Oakdale. It seems that every time collision had resulted? Isn't it time lysis, but doctors reported different. is Dick Phillips, who has already of all the exciting free gifts can be a new postmaster was appointed he the motorist begins to demand dam- They also expressed opinion that the earned a football and is well on the seen at The Post. The boys have been ages for the impassable condition of baby's spine had not been broken but way toward a motion picture camera. instructed to be as polite and courteare after some of the 350 gifts which tions.

ough High School's football team will Weyen:neyer and Patrick Spurgeon. inherit a snappy bunch of football Most of them are working for foot-

The Post is anxious to hear from some energetic young go-getters in the

The child fe'il while playing on the are available are Henry Lee, Dana Any disobedience of that rule should