No. 18

Of All The Newspapers In The

World The Post Is The Only One

Which Puts The Back Mountain's

THE DALLAS POST FRIDAY, MAY 6, 1938

POST SCRIPTS

AIRMAIL RING RHYME TENNYSON

We had hoped President Roosevelt would get around to answering our letter this week but he went off on a battleship fishing, leaving us with a the chief executive. In his absence, world cooperated toward that end, dewe'll have to rely upon another good clared Mrs. Charles H. Frick in an in-

Mr. Polacky, who is acting post- Women' master in Dallas, has been working Mrs. Frick, who feverishly lately on plans for Air Mail pastor of Wyoming Avenue Christian employe of the post office department for queenly qualities in mothers today. is taking that red, white and blue oc- Mothers must give, not only to their casion more seriously.

fundamentals when he tackles any- rank of motherhood, she said. thing. For weeks he has been getting She traced the history of Mothers'

Now Mr. Polacky is offering prizes disappointed. of free airplane rides to the boy and Mrs. Reese Finn was toastmaster 11:30 last night working on mine."

though, he promised.

ory that truth really is stranger than Mrs. Maude Baker as accompanist. fiction that we hasten to pass it on Sometime between thirty and forty years ago Mrs. Amos Kitchen of Alderson lost her wedding ring while Girls Have Chance working in the garden behind her Naturally, the loss disheartened her and she and her husband spent days searching carefully in the garden, But the ring was not to be found and as time passed on the Kitchens gave Invited To Compete For Own up hope of recovering it.

Years passed. The land where the ring had been lost was plowed again and again. Finally the Kitchens gave Clarence Leas of Kingston, strolled out across the lawn, chatting. During the conversation Mr. Kitchen recalled plane contest for them, too. the story of the lost ring and related

Mr. Leas was standing quietly, listening to the story. As it ended, he glanced idly toward his feet. Then he stooped over and picked up something.

"Is this the ring?" he asked quietly. Mr. Kitchen reached for it excitedly and examined it. He rushed to call nearly four decades before.

L. Tennyson will step when he becomes supervising principal of Dallas Borough's schools next Wednesday" said an editorial in The Post of June Earhart, who said: "Girls have had was his after-school chore, and then school system has been a storm center The dust from the latest trouble seems to be settling now and perhaps a new chapter is opening."

The editorial continued:

"Mr. Tennyson comes with exceptionally good references. The people who have met him have been impressed by his friendliness, alertness and fairness. The Post extends a warm welcome . . ." There was more to it. We looked it

BOLT OF LIGHTNING TRAVELS DOWN CHAIN TO ELECTROCUTE DOG

(Continued on Page 8)

A setter owned by Scott Van Horn of Parrish Heights was electrocuted during a heavy thunder storm last Thursday night.

The dog was on a chain which slid along a metal clothes-wire between a tree and a barn in Mr. Van Horn's yard. Apparently lightning struck the tree, travelled along the clothes-line and down the dog chain. Mr. Van Horn was unaware that a bolt of lightning had struck so near the house until he went to call the dog and found it dead.

Mothers Hold Key To IIIs Of World Speaker Believes

Mrs. Frick Addresses Junior Women's Club At Annual Dinner

SPLENDID PROGRAM

The ills of the world could be cured column to fill without any help from in one generation if the mothers of the Democrat, Joe Polacky, to stop the spiring address at the annual Mother and Daughter dinner of Dallas Junior Club on Wednesday night.

is the wife of the Week and we question whether any Church in Kingston, stressed the need children, but also to the community in He believes in getting right down to which they live to achieve the highest ready to make Dallas air mail con- Day to 250 B. C. and described the bescious. The other day he decided that ginning of its modern observance in it was tough for a fellow who had response to the efforts of Ann Jarvis. never been up in a plane to try to sell Mrs. Frick warned the young women aviation to his customers so he went that they must choose between two down to the Wyoming Valley Airport roads, one with a gleam, the other and took a ride. Felt more like cele- with a glare. "Don't be disillusioned brating Air Mail Week when he came by thrills!" she pleaded. "Take the gleam, for the glare will leave you the girl who build the best model air- Invocation was given by Mrs. Charles plane. That was pretty new to Joe, Smith. Mrs. Peynton Lee gave a toast too, until he went shopping in John to the mothers and Mrs. Claude Cooke Williams' store and acquired a knock- gave the toast to the daughters. The down airplane. Mr. Polacky was in musical program included solos by to see us one day this week. "You Mrs. George K. Swartz, who sang know," he said, "it's no cinch to build "Morning", and Mrs. Charlotte Payne, these model planes. I was up until who sang "Songs My Mother Taught Me." The Glee Club sang several se-He won't enter his in the trials lections, a quartet having as members Mrs. Kenneth Oliver, Mrs. Robert Bodycomb, Mrs. Peynton Lee and Mrs. This is an old story, but one which Arthur Oliver sang, and Mrs. Charles we'd never heard until this week and Whitesell gave a reading. Mrs. Thom-

(Continued on Page 8)

For Airplane Ride

Prize In Air Mail Week Contest

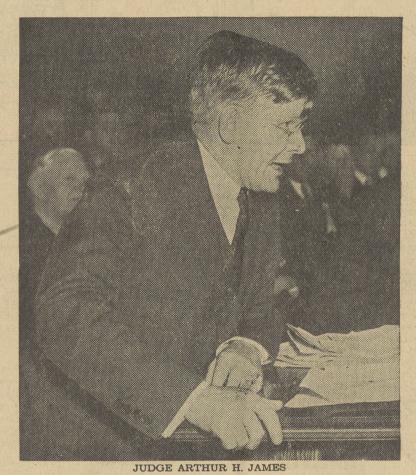

up the garden and made a lawn of Township and Dallas Borough High the plot. A few years ago, after a Sunday dinner, Mr. Kitchen and his School will have an opportunity to win son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. a free airplane trip over Dallas as a result of Postmaster Joseph Polacky's ious support of the family. He went decision this week to have a model down to the same colliery in which > to be built and the rules can be se- dark." Arthur worked from before cured from Mr. Polacky. The models dawn until after sunset, picking slate, must have a wing span 22-inches or driving mules, hauling wooden coal acky at the post office not later than May 16, to be displayed during National Air Mail Week.

On Saturday of that week, May 21. the models will be tested before judges which had slipped from her finger distance, perform best and look best he won a lot, too. will be adjudged the winners. One boy, and one girl, owners of the best planes, "It is no easy job into which Harry will receive a free airplane trip from Wyoming Valley airport over Dallas.

contest, Mr. Polacky quoted Amelia school and delivered groceries, which few opportunities to express their mechanical bent. Yet some of them through by any means. "The principalship of the borough's would prove better carpenters than cooks, just as some boys would make learned the bitter lesson that a full for many years. Within the last few better pies than machines. Many girls day's work in the mines, even though months it has become again the pivot are skillful with their fingers. Model- regular, was not sufficient for more point for an unfortunate controversy. making gives a back-ground in aeron- than bare existence. He sought conwill need tomorrow."

JAMES IN CHARACTERISTIC FIGHTING FORM

Fought Way From Breaker To Superior Court Bench

ARTHUR JAMES' CAREER STUDDED WITH BATTLES

(This is the first of two installments of the biography of Arthur H. James, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor)

The story of Arthur H. James is the story of a fighting man Almost from the sultry July 14 in 1883, when he came into the world in the little mining city of Plymouth, Luzerne county, in the heart of Pennsylvania's anthracite fields, his life has been one long battle, uphill and against

In boyhood, he fought with other boys, because he couldn't help it. In youth, he fought poverty to win his education. In manhood he fought inwe'd never heard until this week and it is such excellent proof of the theas Robinson was song leader, with whom the world had treated harshly.

His red hair and jutting jaw ared symbolic of the rise of a little slate picker from a Pennsylvania colliery to his present eminence as a Judge of the Superior Court.

Judge James was born not a half mile from his present modest, white frame residence in Plymouth. He was the oldest boy in a family of five girls and three boys, six of whom survive. His parents were James D. and Rachel Edwards James, natives of Wales who had emigrated to America. The elder James was a mine worker. Judge James' mother, before her mar-Pennsylvania school of the early 80's.

Arthur began early in life to contribute his share toward the precarhis father worked. They had a saying Complete details of the type of plane down in the dark and came up in the cars from face to passage.

At the mine, as in school, the other boys taunted him because of his carroty red hair. A taunted boy has either to run away or to fight. Arthur chose to fight. He lost a lot of fights, his wife. It was the ring, the ring and the planes which fly the greatest because he was a frail boy then. But

> Study and work, with little or no time for play, was the program of the pugnacious red-head's early days. In urging girls to compete in the Even after he had come home from

His father, an ambitious man, had autics that women, as well as men, stantly to better himself, imbued with (Continued on Page 8)

Tourists To Come More During Trip

To Pass Through Dallas On May 14

Dallas briefly on Saturday, May 14, es at once.

Sunday, May 8.

Smith, member of the State Commission, and Norman Johnstone secretary ural conservation office located at the of Wyoming Valley Motor Club, will Rear of 84 Scott Street, Wilkes-Barre. meet the Good Will Caravan at then through Dallas on the way to the of the present program. at The Sterling.

leave no doubt in their minds that tunity to mulch their land." "Pennsylvania Has Everything" is no idle slogan. And they will return home what a wonderful scenic and historic ural lake wholly within the State. State Pennsylvania is."

Tennyson Resigns As Head Of Dallas Borough Schools

Will Accept Position As Supervising Principal In Home Town In Western Part Of State; Local Board Prepares To Appoint His Successor Soon As Possible

DIRECTORS FIX 1937 BUDGET AND MILLAGE

Harry L. Tennyson, supervising principal of Dallas Borough Schools for the last two years, has accepted a position as head of the joint districts of Smith Township and Burgettstown Borough in Washington County

Mr. Tennyson submitted his resignation to the school directors at their meeting on Wednesday night and after accepting with regret, the directors set in motion plans to appoint Mr. Tennyson's successor as quickly as possible.

The new position will be a step up for Mr. Tennyson. He will have supervision of a faculty of 90 teachers in his new job. Burgettstown is Mr. Tennyson's home and is only about seven Heavy Gains Here miles from Midway, where he taught before he came here in 1936.

He was appointed to the new position last Friday night and will assume his new duties on July 1. His tenure of office here has been extremely successful and his departure will be regretted by board members, pupils and faculty. Steady Democratic gains in registra-

At the same meeting the school tions throughout the Back Mountain board adopted tentatively its new budregion were reported by Democratic get, which will be presented for formal workers at a meeting a the home of action on May 25. The millage will re-Charles Youngblood in Shavertown on main at 29, the same as last year, and the customary $5 per capita tax will Plans were made for a rally to be be continued.

held at the new home of Shavertown | Amounts listed on the budget are: firemen on Monday night, when prom-Expenditures: General control, $1,inent Democratic candidates and party 395; instruction, $21,672; auxiliary, leaders will be speakers. All Demo- $140; operation, $2,558; maintenance, crats from this section are invited. $750; debt service, $4,000; capital out-Speakers at Wednesday night's lay, $9,425.

Receipts were stated as follows: man of the Sixth Legislative District, Cash balance, $2,000; current taxes, Frank Correale, candidate for State $17,800; state appropriation, $9,150; Senator, and Edgar Lare, candidate delinquent taxes, $3,000; tuition, $1,for Representative from this district. 010; interest, $5; miscellaneous, $200; bonds sold, $7,500.

Amateurs Invited Advises Farmers To Enter Contest

Program Benefitted Local Farms Last Year, Stock Says

meeting were Stephen Farris, chair-

Democrats Report

Back Mountain Rally Will

Be Held At Shavertown

On Monday

Wednesday night.

Grover C. Stock, Carverton, chair- master of ceremonies. Try-outs will Caravan Of Newspapermen man of the Luzerne County Agricultural Conservation Committee, yester- at Shavertown grade school. day advised all county farmers who intend to participate in the 1938 Agri-A caravan of newspapermen and who expect to carry out practices intravel counselors from Eastern United volving spring operations, to obtain States will visit Harvey's Lake and complete information on such practic-

Girls, as well as boys, from Dallas riage had been a teacher in a rural during an eleven-day jaunt through "Immediate and accurate information is imperative", declared Chairman M. E. Conference Makes No More than 100 guests of the State Stock, "where practices call for the Publicity Commission will begin the use of materials such as seed, lime, 1500-mile trip at Harrisburg after a and fertilizer, so that the proper types breakfast with Governor Earle on and amounts may be obtained early, and the best place to procure such in-On Friday, May 13, Col. Ernest G. formation is from the community committeemen or the county agricult-

> "The 1937 program in the county re-Williamsport and on the following sulted in substantial gains in agrimorning will guide them to Wilkes- cultural advancement in line with good farm management. Practically the The first stop near here will be at same soil-building practices which Kitchen Creek, where Colonel Ricketts were responsible for such gains are will show the guests the first falls. available to county farmers under the The caravan will then proceed around 1938 program. In fact, the new Farm Huntsville Dam to Harvey's Lake and Act continues them as the backbone valley. Wyoming Valley Motor Club "We farmers have an opportunity in and Wyoming Valley Chamber of 1938 again to use practices calling for Commerce wil be hosts at a luncheon the use of lime and superphosphates To Give Minstrel on hay and pasture land, to make new "I am absolutely certain, "says Roy seedings of legumes, to plant forest studied his lessons, Art was not E. Brownmiller, chairman of the trees, improve woodland pasture by State Commission, "that the views excluding livestock, and the orchardist these guests will see on this tour will and vegetable grower have an oppor-

> Conneaut Lake in Crawford County, to tell their readers and clients, too, covering 929 acres, is the largest nat-

To Study New Act Talented amateurs in this section have been invited to compete for cash prizes in the Amateur Night to be conducted on May 13 at Kingston Township High School under auspices of Dr. Places' Men's Bible Class of Shavertown M. E. Church. Franklin D. Coslett, WBRE announcer, will be

For Another Year

be held on Wednesday night, May 11,

Changes In Its Local Charges

For the first time in a number of years, no changes in local charges were made at the annual session of

Episcopal Church, which ended its sessions at Kingston on Monday morning. Seven pastors of charges in Dallas and its vicinity were returned to their congregations for another year. Local churches and their pastors follow:

Wyoming Conference of the Methodist

Alderson, Noxen, Guy Leinthall; Carverton, Charles H. Gilbert; Centermoreland, Thomas F. Kline; Dallas. Francis F. Freeman; Lehman, C. Duane Butler; Shavertown, Russell J. May; Trucksville, Harry M. Savacool.

For Fifth Time

The Honey Boy Minstrels of Kunkle Grange have been invited to present their successful minstrel show at Centermoreland on Saturday night. It will be the fifth time the Kunkle grangers have given their show. It has been presented recently at Kunkle, Beaumont, Mooretown and Jackson.

BAKE SALE

The Junior Class of Dallas Borough High School will sponsor a bake sale tomorrow (Saturday) in the storeroom

FUNDS ARE EARMARKED FOR LOCAL HIGHWAY JOBS BY ROOSEVELT

Washington, D. C., May 5-Two projects in Dallas Borough were among those approved by President Roosevelt this week, according to Congressman J. Harold Flannery.

An allotment of $2,681 was approved to improve Elizabeth Street on Parrish Heights. Another appropriation of $5,681 was authorized for improvements to Ma-

The projects must be approved yet by the Comptroller General and the State authorities. Dallas Borough Council is the sponsor.

Street Car Line To Dallas Began As Steam Road 42 Years Ago John B. Reynolds was the guiding of the porch, then started a locomotive one can ride in the electric cars from on Main Street formerly occupied by

The inexorable march of time will abandoned in favor of gasoline buses.

Ten years younger than the Bowman's Creek Branch of the Lehigh will be severed when the by-pass is buses will take the place of the elec-

has felt keenly the competition of porarily. A new charter was secured trucks and automobiles and its volume | -for a "steam" railroad-and the ing the last quarter of a century.

The railroad, which had been built to tap the rich lumber section west and north of Dallas, had scarcely be- The porch of the Odd Fellows' buildgun to profit from the boom business ing stood where the company wanted of the 1880's when financiers began its tracks to go. Unable to reach an to discuss the possibility of construct- agreement any other way, the promot- to be connected with the electric trol- automobile will have made its coning a rival road.

when the 42-year-old trolley system They organized the Wilkes-Barre and in, and the tracks moved on again. Luzerne.

Valley Railroad, the street car line in those days railroad financiers were accustomed to smashing away anyconstructed at Luzerne, and modern thing that blocked their path. When a landowner balked at permitting the right-of-way to cut across his prop-Like the railroad, the street car line erty the project was stalled only temward Dallas,

There was more trouble in town. ers ordered the tracks laid to the end ley system at Wilkes-Barre, so that quest complete.

spirit of the new venture. Arthur A/ full-speed toward the building. The Public Square in Wilkes-Barre to the Grand Union. lay another local institution low soon | Holbrook was another leading backer. | porch crumpled, the Odd Fellows' gave | Harvey's Lake without change.'

to be a thriving community.

The original line had a good start, however, and before long the Wilkes-Barre and Northern Railroad was in maxed by its judicial sale to the picknickers across the lake. Wilkes-Barre, Dallas and Harvey's domain to push its tracks onward to- traction company, on August 20, 1898.

In the History of Dallas, William Penn Ryman wrote: "The road at this between Wilkes-Barre and Dallas is Northern Railroad and in 1896 they The first steam locomotive on the it changed hands, the line was electribegan grading through the gorge at new line chugged through Dallas in fied. The trolley car system flourish-December, 1896, to the cheers of a ed for years and was largely respon-They met a number of obstacles, but great crowd which was convinced that sible for the rapid development of the Dallas, with two railroads, was bound Hillside, Truckwille and Shavertown sections. In the summer, cars were jam-packed, transporting people to the traction company's park at Fernbrook and to Harvey's Lake, where the comfinancial difficulties which were cli- pany owned boats which carried the

The company's right-of-way at Luof business has dropped steadily dur- company used the right of eminent Lake Railway Co., a subsidiary of the zerne will become a part of the new Luzerne by-pass. Later, according to plans being considered already by county engineers, the right-of-way from Mt. Greenwood past Fernbrook writing is being extended to Harvey's into Dallas will also become the base Lake and it is expected before long for a new concrete highway and the