

The Old Scrap Book

Hello there:

Do you know anyone who likes to gossip? The only way to silence gossip is to be silent about gossip. Try it sometime.

Some men think the thirty-minute sermon too long. So they substitute the 1,152-column Sunday newspaper. Let him who expects one class in society to prosper to the highest degree with others in a distress, see whether one side of his face can smile while the other is pinched.

FACE TO FACE

I had walked life's path with an easy tread,
Had followed where comfort and pleasure led,
And then by chance in a quite place
I met my Master face to face.

With station and rank, and wealth for a goal,
Much thought for the body but none for the soul,
When I met my Master face to face.

I had built my castles and reared them high,
Till their towers had pierced the blue of the sky,
I had sworn to rule with an iron mace,
When I met my Master face to face.

I met Him, and knew Him, and blushed to see
That His eyes, full of sorrow, were fixed on me,
And I faltered and fell at His feet that day
While my castles melted and vanished away.

Our text for the week is in Hebrews 9:27, "As it is appointed unto man once to die, and after this, the judgment."

Here is a thought for the week: He who seeks for a faultless brother will have to remain brotherless.

Your friend,
Bob Sutton.

Two new baseball leagues were organized last week—the Wyoming County League composed of LaGrange, Noxen, So. Eaton, Tunkhannock, East Lemon, Lake Carey, West Nicholson. Also the fast Bi-county League composed of Dallas, Vernon, Noxen, East Dallas, Carverton, Beaumont, Factoryville and Jenks. All these teams will play ball worthy of your support.

Stanford's field seeds and Rice's garden seeds enjoy wide reputation as good crop producers. Two of our recent customers are S. J. Buckley of Hop Bottom, and D. E. Davenport at Sweet Valley. It's not too late to see us for Seeds, Corn, Lime and Fertilizers.

We have your favorite seed corn in stock—Leaming, Lancaster, Sure Crop, Eureka, Central Penn. Sweepstakes, Red and Yellow Flints—prices from $1.80 up. Our Maple City Brand of crow repellant 40c for the bushel size.

Crows are a lot like the rest of us, in that grass is always greener over the fence, but Prime electric fence will hold the worst pushers or rumpers. May we demonstrate for you?

Floating power is a good description for our Oliver and Allis-Chalmers tractors mounted on rubber. Recent purchasers are Franklin Robbins at Lemon and Captain Chester Wells at Spring Hill.

Dallas Scouts Spend Week-end At Acahela

One hundred five Boy Scouts from Dallas and vicinity spent last week-end at Camp Acahela in the Poonos under supervision of Ted Hessler, new district scout executive, and their scoutmasters. It was the first time the local district had had the camp for a week-end and despite inclement weather the attendance was the best representation, considering membership, of any district.
