Sell Bunker Hill School To Church

Township Directors Adopt Budget For Ensuing Year

Kingston Township School Board, meeting with all members present, adopted the budget for the coming year this week.

On motion of George Prater the board voted to pay $14,100 plus interest on short term notes held by Luzerne National Bank, the money to be paid from the bonds sold by the board. The payroll and current expenses, amounting to $4,420.48, and $660 for attorney's fees were ordered paid.

The board signed the deed for the sale of the Bunker Hill school house to the Bunker Hill Sunday School Association. As a committee the board gave contracts for part of the school and janitors' supplies. Contracts will be awarded for the balance of supplies later.

Before the meeting the directors met with Architect Herr at the Trucksville grade school grounds and selected the position of the new building. Mr. Herr expects to have plans in readiness for the meeting tonight (Friday), have the plans accepted by the Department of Education at Harrisburg and be ready to advertise for bids promptly.

The Old Scrap Book

Howdy there:

The Bible says that it is not good for man to be alone. Why? Because there is something in us all that demands attention, love, and consideration. We crave sympathy. Man needs something or somebody on which he may bestow his affection, attention, and money. It may be a boy, a girl, or inanimate object which takes his time, but the truth still remains that man does not like to be alone. The Bible also says that no man liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself. What is the object of your affections? I have found that love to God is more than all the human life can possess and the best part is that God knows how to return that love.

I wrote the following lines thinking on this business of being alone:

ALONE
It must be awful to be alone,
With no one at all to call your own;
No one with whom your love you can share,
No one to sympathize, pity or care.

It must be awful to be alone,
Nowhere on earth to call your home;
No friends or loved ones to bring you delight,
No children to cheer and make your way bright.

No loving arms to hold you so tight,
When day is done and cometh the night;
No warm word of welcome to cheer your sad heart,
No tender devotion or peace to impart.

No kiss of affection is placed on your cheek,
No smile of attention, for which you now seek;
No service of love for someone so dear,
No song and no laughter, but only a tear.

Those who spend too much time alone bewail their own state. When no one is around, we all feel sorry for ourselves. But to be alone with God is to pour out trouble to Him, and hear Him answer, "Lo I am with you always". Here is the only cure for loneliness.

Our text for the week is in Ecclesiastes 4:10. "Woe unto him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath no one to pick him up".

A thought for the week: Better to speak good of your friends in public than to think evil of them in private.

Your for less loneliness,
Bob Sutton.

staff and she would be right. Margaret M. Stack, '38, deserves special mention for her hard work all year, and Dorothy V. Guerra, '38, and Mary C. McCauley, '39, have also been valuable contributors. There are a score or more others, including the staff advisers, whose gentle restraint provides the touch which is needed to assure Miss Recordia's consistent charm. We salute them all for a worthy journalistic job.
