MR. DONALD (HOT TEMPERED) DUCK TAKES UP GOLF

Donald's Golf Game
"I haven't any fancy clubs,"
Said Donald Duck one day,
"But if you'll caddy, Goofy lad
A game of golf I'll play."

But when he raised his mallet high
To make a lengthy drive,
The ball went singing through the air
And landed—sakes alive!

A bull who nibbled daintily
Across the meadow's rim
Leaped up and roared in agony—
The ball had lit on him!

MR. DONALD DUCK, who fits across most of the motion picture screens in America, has taken up golf.

With Goofy lad, Donald has started out to learn the intricacies of the ancient Scottish game.

The editor of Good Housekeeping has given us permission to reproduce a portion of the full color page Donald Duck display the magazine has in the July issue. Here they are:

The large and angry bull saw red,
And you know how bulls are!
He chased them over hill and dale—
As golfers, they went far!

Night found them stymied in a pond
With lots of time to kill,
And if the bull has not gone home,
They're probably there still!
