Have 'Skimmelton' At Garinger Home

Friends Bring Noise-Makers At Midnight To Fete Zel And Wife

A group of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Garinger, who moved into their Lake Street home recently, revived the ancient "skimmelton" of the Pennsylvania Dutch one night this week to pay a noisy tribute to Zel and his wife.

Armed with noise-makers, the jolly crowd headed by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Devens, descended upon the Garinger home about midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Garinger invited the crowd in and the "skimmelton" lasted until about 1 a. m.

The "skimmelton" is a custom used by the Pennsylvania Dutch to congratulate newlyweds by almost deafening them with a racket from tin pans, whistles, shotguns and similar noise-makers. It is becoming increasingly popular around here. Another "skimmelton" was held last week for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woolbert of Shavertown.

In the crowd at the Garinger "skimmelton" were: Mr. and Mrs. Devens, Mrs. Dorothy Dodson, Mrs. Naomi Ashburner, Ralph R. Ashburner, Fred Dodson, Austin Wertman, Doris Hess, John Honeywell, Nellie Honeywell, Francis Sayre, Ralph Hoyt, Clyde Hoyt, Lois Hilbert, Sis Elston, Raymond Hoyt, Theodore Cobleigh, Peggy Ide, Alfred Nulton, Willard Hoyt, Dana Campbell, Gilbert Boston, Florence Hoyt, Laura Hoyt, Laura Martin, Jiggs Elston, K. M. Martin.

Harrisburg People Visit Local Folks

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Wilcox of Lake Street have entertained as their guests for two weeks Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lynch and daughter, Doris, of Harrisburg. While here they spent one day at Whirl's End Park with other guests and drove to the beautiful view at High Knob.

They also spent several days on a trip to Vermont, Massachusetts and New York, visiting Lake Champlain and Lake George. While in Vermont they visited the world's largest exhibit of polished marble at Proctor. A guide took them through the plant. One of the exhibits was The Last Supper scene carved from solid white Vermont marble.

The Old Scrap Book

Well, here we are again, back in the noisy world after a week of quiet and a complete case of voluntary amnesia. Purposely forgetting what has happened and living in the joy of the present. Oh, that it could continue. That's a little what Heaven's going to be like.

Here are some "Golden Nuggets" from our speakers at Montrose.

"If you're to big for a small place, you're too small for a big place."

"Everybody wants peace, provided they get the biggest piece".

"Some of us don't believe in back-sliding, but we practice it just the same".

Rev. Ralph G. Turnbull of England was discussing the temptations of ministers. One man said his chief one was impatience with the lame and slow growing sheep. Another man wanted to know what he could do about them. With a wise look, Mr. Turnbull said, "I should like to know what kind of food they are getting".

At our table was a young lady from Paterson, N. J., the daughter of the pastor of the Italian Methodist church there. She runs a beauty parlor in the city, and everyone who visits her shop receives a word of testimony from her regarding her Savior. Every one receives a tract, and is shown the way to eternal life. And her shop is the most prosperous in Paterson, this proves that it pays to be a Christian even in business.

Have you no words? Ah, think again. Words flow apace when you complain. Were half the breath thus vainly spent.

To Heaven in supplication sent, Your cheerful song would oftener be "Hear what the Lord hath done for me".

Our text for the week is in 1 Kings 8:56. "There hath not failed one word of all His good promise".

Be seeing you all right here next week.

Yours, Bob Sutton.
