

Auxiliaries Open Their New Season

Generous Gifts Set Fine Precedents For Year's Efforts

The various women's auxiliaries of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital held their first meetings of the fall season within the last week and established several fine precedents for public service for the ensuing year.

At its meeting in the Nurses' Home on Friday morning, the Women's Board of the hospital, with Mrs. V. P. Edwards as chairman, adopted a resolution authorizing the payment of about $1,500 for new furnishings in the nurses' home.

On Friday afternoon the Kingston auxiliary met at the hospital for a luncheon meeting and card party and decided to contribute $600 to the women's board for furnishings. The Dorancton auxiliary, meeting on the same afternoon in the Nurses' Home for a meeting and card party, also agreed to give $600 to the Women's Board.

Forty Fort auxiliary, displaying the same fine spirit, met at the Town Hall building in Forty Fort and appropriated $200 for equipment for student nurses. The Shavertown auxiliary also held its first meeting of the year and agreed to purchase $300 for the hospital's X-ray department. At Plymouth, the auxiliary of that community voted to buy a quantity of woolen blankets.

A number of pleasant events are planned for the auxiliaries and a busy and fruitful year is anticipated.
