Conrad Will Celebrate 25 Years In Business

The success of Conrad Motor Company, well-known West Side automobile agency, has grown hand in hand with that attained by the manufacturers of Dodge motor cars, for the concern was formed at the time the Dodge first appeared on the market in 1914. The Dodge-Plymouth agency has display rooms located at 303 Wyoming avenue, Kingston.

Conrad Motor Company has long been known throughout the Valley as a square dealing organization, and every motor car or truck sold from its show rooms or lot carries with it a guarantee and precedent for complete satisfaction to the purchaser. Conrad's is one of the oldest and most reputable dealers in the state, celebrating its twenty-fifth anniversary next year along with the Dodge.

Conrad's was among the first dealers in the county to introduce Plymouth automobiles when they came into being some years ago, and the concern now carries a complete line of Plymouths, Dodges, Dodge commercial cars and trucks, and also deals in dependable used cars and trucks.

Burnaford Shoes Have Many Boosters

Depressions and recessions are disturbing enough, but a falling business graph isn't anywhere near as painful as a falling arch. Prosperity means smiling faces, but even those smiles that have turned the corner are a trifle wan and strained when the foot market is off a few points.

Although Charles N. Burnaford can't possibly guarantee business success, he can and will guarantee the smile of health and comfort. For Mr. Burnaford carries the best in shoes, both in appearance and hygienic qualities, and can give you a good, firm footing. In his modern shoe store at 53 West Market Street, Wilkes-Barre (the Sterling Hotel), he carries a complete line of Nettleton shoes and Whitehalls.
