June Shaw Wed At
Lovely Ceremony

Local Girl Becomes Bride
Of Lawrence Brown
Of Lehman

The marriage of June Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Shaw of Trucksville, and Lawrence Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brown of Lehman, took place in The Little White Church on the Hill at Trucksville on Thursday night, February 2, at 6:15. Rev. H. M. Savacool, pastor, performed the ceremony.

The attendants were Kay Zimmerman and Rose Shaw, sister of the bride, and Glen Brown and Paul War-mouth, the former a brother of the groom. The bride wore teal blue with a corsage of pink rose-buds. Her sisters wore blue and maroon and their flowers were sweet peas. The bridegroom's attendants wore boutonnieres of sweet peas and rosebuds. The bride was graduated from Lehman High School in 1938. Mr. Brown also attended Lehman High School and is doing florist work at Wheaton, Ill., where they will reside.

Father Of Savacool
Dies At Stillwater

Rev. Harry Savacool, pastor of Trucksville M. E. Church, left Tuesday morning for Stillwater, N. J., having received word of the death of his father there. Mr. Savacool was 61 years of age and had lived in Stillwater all his life. His wife died several years ago. He was a member of the Methodist Church and had served as an official of the Stillwater Church for many years.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 1:30 in the church at Stillwater. Mrs. Harry Savacool left here Wednesday afternoon to be with her husband, who is the only child, for the funeral.

Special Affairs Locally
Recall The Ideals
Of Scouting

An important change in the set-up of the Executive Council marked the early part of Boy Scout Week, February 8-15, in the Dallas District.

The Council, hitherto a small elective body, will be enlarged to admit a representative from each scout district. It was disclosed by John Hewitt, chief scout executive of Wyoming Valley, at a meeting of Dallas District scout officials held in the Odd Fellows Hall last night.

The new plan will bring the management of the Boy Scouts and the formation of their policies closer to the boys and their leaders, according to Mr. Hewitt.

A number of church services will be devoted to a discussion of the Boy Scouts Sunday. Rev. Francis E. Freeman, pastor of Dallas M. E. Church, will preach a sermon on

QUENCH STUBBORN BLAZE

Henry M. Laing Firemen Extinguish
Fire In Building In Rear
Of Tompkins Home

A stubborn blaze in small office building in the rear of the L. A. Tompkins home on Overbrook Avenue, Dallas Township, gave volunteer firemen from Dr. Henry M. Laing Co. a stiff battle last Thursday.

Efficient work on the part of the firemen held the loss to about $200, Chief Leslie Warhola estimated. The blaze was started by a defective flue and flames swept up the partitions.
