Arrows Get Ready To Begin Practice 1938 Champs Will Play On Old Football Field

APRIL SHOWERS bring May cauliflowers. That was the clever slogan we made up to pin on the Dallas Boxing Club, before the Reformation.

For the charter members of the club, who know a good thing when they see it, changed the organization around a bit.

Dedicated to the athletic whims of the young men of Dallas and expanded to include all manner of sports as the members dictate, the association is really a snatch from the small town gym of the old days.

THE MEN who have become actively interested in the club and its affairs feel that they are really doing something constructive toward the physical training of the boys, the boys themselves feel appreciative, and Johnnie Hayden feels that he had a pretty good idea in the first place.

A ring has been installed in the club room and other boxing and training apparatus has been or will be set up. The gym, which is rented from Johnnie, is entirely separated from the night club, which should satisfy any parental qualms, and activities will be entirely athletic and on a wholesome plane.

The club is open at all hours of the day and until a reasonable hour in the evening. Although the training facilities are open only to members, anyone may come around and see the boys work out.

TONIGHT a four-bout card will be put on. No admission will be charged, the whole affair will be just in fun, and anyone interested in boxing is invited to attend.

Harold Price was elected president of the association, with Kyle Cundiff as vice-president, Bob Bipper, secretary and John Hayden, treasurer. Although another member of the club, young or old, was eligible for office, it is believed that the older men will be able to give the organization the progressiveness and foresight it needs to become a real success.

More about the president: Harold Price, who most everybody knows as Hank, is the mechanical superintendent of The Dallas Post, another famous community institution. Seriously, though, Hank is well fitted for his position. Although he has been in this section a relatively short time, his capabilities have impressed the friends he has made.

The club has been put on a non-profit basis. The nominal monthly fee charged members will be put towards the improvement of the facilities and the purchase of further apparatus. Boys from 16 to 21 will pay 25 cents a month for the use of the gym.

FOR BASEBALL the boys will have to furnish their own gloves, but for most of the sports to be sponsored by the association, members will need only their gym clothes.

The association should prove a real benefit to Dallas boys. In high schools, sports are limited pretty well to the outstanding athletes, and the boys that really need the athletic training are behind the eight-ball from the start.

The champion Dallas Arrows, whose hopes for a new diamond were shattered this week, will go into practice Sunday afternoon on the old Dallas Borough football field on Center Hill road.

The Dallas Township High ball park was eliminated as a possible site for home games next summer when school officials announced that the diamond will be taken up by the Noxen and Kunkle nines throughout the season.

Supporters of the team will be asked to help renovate the borough field during their spare time, according to Manager Don Gross. A change in the position of home plate and work on the infield should eliminate the slope and make the diamond playable, he said.

Chet Sutton, Pants Lee and Casper Salansky will pitch for the Arrows this year, with Al Salansky behind the plate. In the infield, Red Brinzo, southpaw, will be at first base, Joe Banks at second and Ben Rusiloski at short stop.

The drive for the purchase of new suits will be concluded next week. So far, merchant support has been 100 per cent and no hitch is expected. The new uniforms will be pearl grey, with Kelly green and white piping and Kelly green lettering.

Them Were The Days

What was happening here ten years ago this week? Here are a few items taken from The Post's files, just to refresh your memory.

Spring rains during the last few days have delayed road construction, inconvenienced farmers and discouraged fishermen.

The Dallas Rotarians entertained their wives and friends at a banquet at the Castle Inn on Monday night in observance of the second anniversary of the club's charter.

Borough Council met on Tuesday night to discuss an agreement with Dallas Township supervisors on paving Center Hill Road.

Flames completely destroyed the De-mund's Corners home of J. M. Broody, Wilkes-Barre, on Monday night. The loss is estimated at 5,000.

Dallas Township School Board has decided not to permit any baseball on the school grounds this year.

A short time ago two of our Main Street merchants indulged in an ice cream war for about two hours or so. However, after furnishing something for the passersby to comment about they seemed to agree on at least a temporary truce.

Our local blacksmith, Alex Johnson, is nursing a sore hand. He picked up a hot iron tire and burnt his hand quite badly.

Mrs. W. L. Tracy has returned from a 17-day cruise of the West Indies. Upon her return she spent a week in New York as the guest of her son, Lee, who is playing in "The Front Page".

The inside walls and woodwork of the Tanners' Bank at Noxen are being refinished and shades have been ordered for the windows.

Work on the Warden Place-Alderston Road is progressing nicely at Harvey's Lake.

Many of the local duck hunters have had itchy fingers these past few weeks for quite a few flocks of ducks have spent a day or two on the lake.

General William T. Sherman, and not President Roosevelt, coined the expression "New Deal". Wrote General Sherman in 1863: "... the war is prolonged; ... little chance of its ending until we have a New Deal."

In the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County. In the matter of the petition of the Wyoming National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Trustee, for a rule on the heirs and assigns of Lord Butler, et al., to bring ejectment to No. 579 May Term, 1939.

Notice is hereby given to the heirs and assigns of Lord Butler, deceased, and to the heirs and assigns of John P. Arndt, deceased, and to all other persons interested, that on April 10, 1939, the petition of the Wyoming National Bank of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, was presented in the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County at the above number and term, setting forth that said Wyoming National Bank is the owner in fee of a certain lot of land in the seventh ward of the City of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and described as follows:

Being a lot of land on the southeasterly side of South River Street, distant 279.47 feet southwesterly from Northampton Street, 78 feet and 8 inches in width by 229 feet in depth, more or less, bounded on the northeasterly side by property of William H. Conyngham and on the southwesterly side by property of Edward Morris and Lillian Morris, his wife. Being the property which was formerly known as the homestead of Hendrick B. Wright, now deceased, and the same property which vested in said Wyoming National Bank, Trustee, by deed of Madeline H. Barnum, et al., dated the 16th day of March, 1937, and recorded in the Recorder's office of Luzerne County in Deed Book No. 776, at page 56.

That on April 1st, 1807, said Lord Butler, who was then the owner of said property, entered into a contract to sell the central portion of the above described lot of land, to wit, a piece of land 48 feet more or less in width by 225 feet more or less in depth, to said John P. Arndt, and the said land was repossessed by the said Lord Butler, and that no deed to any person from said Butler for the said land appears to have ever been recorded in said Luzerne County.

That Hendrick B. Wright, deceased, who died on the 2nd day of September, 1881, had possessed and occupied all of the above described property for more than twenty-one years immediately before his death, and that since that time the said property had been owned and occupied by his heirs and their representatives until it was conveyed by deed of March 16th, 1937, as above mentioned, to said Wyoming National Bank, which corporation now holds the title, occupancy and possession of the same as trustee for certain uses and trusts particularly set forth in said deed.

That neither said Lord Butler nor his heirs, nor said John P. Arndt, nor his heirs, have been in possession of said premises, or any part thereof, for a period of twenty-one years next preceding the filing of the said petition; whereupon the Court granted the following rule:

"And now, 10th day of April, 1939, the foregoing petition having been presented in open Court, and after investigation of the same and testimony having been taken thereon, and due proof of the allegations set forth in said petition having been made to the satisfaction of the Court, a rule is hereby granted upon the heirs and assigns of Lord Butler, and upon the heirs and assigns of John P. Arndt, and upon all other persons interested, said heirs of Lord Butler or of John P. Arndt, having an apparent interest in or to the title to a portion of the real estate described in said petition, but not having been in possession thereof for a period of twenty-one years and more next preceding the date of said application, to bring his, her or their action in ejectment within six months from the date of service of said rule upon him, her or them or show cause why the same cannot be so brought."

It is further ordered and decreed that service of said rule be made upon said parties claiming or having apparent interest in or title to said real estate, and upon all other parties interested, by the Sheriff of Luzerne County by publication in The Dallas Post and in the Luzerne Register, two newspapers of said Luzerne County, once a week for six weeks in accordance with the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided. Said rule returnable to the 19th day of June, 1939.

By the Court, McDonald, Judge." WILLIAM R. THOMAS, Sheriff. Edwin Shortz, Jr., Attorney for Petitioner.
