Mrs. James Reed of Lehigh Street is ill at her home.

Monica Stencil, a senior at Kingston Township High School, is still in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. She is expected to come home in about two weeks.

Card Party For Brownies

Committee women of Trucksville Brownie Pack, No. 2, sponsored a card party and tea on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Robert Altick, Warden Avenue. The party was enjoyed by a large group of friends of the Brownies.

King's Daughters Plan Annual Garden Party

Plans for the annual garden party were completed by the King's Daughters Class of Shavertown M. E. Church at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Hoffman, Jr. The garden party will be held on Wednesday evening, June 28, on the church lawn.

Mrs. Earl Lamoreaux, who presided, announced the following committees: General chairman, Mrs. Earl Lamoreaux; reservations, Mrs. Howard Wolbert; patrons, Mrs. Russell Schall; reception, Mrs. Russell J. May, Mrs. Earl Lamoreaux; program, Mrs. J. J. Borthwick; decorations, Mrs. Jack Jones, Mrs. Thomas Moore; refreshments, Mrs. Fred Layaou, Mrs. Lawrence Coolbaugh.

Mrs. Mary Snowden and Mrs. Howard Hontz were welcomed as new members. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Russell Schall offered tributes to mothers. Mrs. Ruth Shotwell assisted as hostess. In addition to those named, others present were Mrs. Russell Greenwood, Jennie Stark, Barbara Downer and Francis Thomas.

Heads Committee

Mrs. Edward Griffith of Mt. Airy Road has been named chairman of the nominating committee for the board of directors of the women's board of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Program Marks Music Week

In observance of music week, a special program was given at the high school on Wednesday afternoon. For the Junior High School program, June Parsons played a piano solo and Paul Lyne and Albert Groblewski sang two duets, assisted by Margaret Jones. The Senior High School program consisted of selections by the orchestra, numbers by Miss Parsons, Mr. Lyne and Mr. Groblewski. Frank Klonin played two saxophone solos and Margaret Jones played two piano solos.

Conflict Brings Suggestion

Social activities in the township have increased to such an extent recently that many people are of the opinion some kind of a clearing house for dates should be planned, since many times several social functions are held on the same night. Such an arrangement is badly needed.

Bid Good Bye To Knechts

Local members and friends of the Glenview P. M. Church attended a farewell party on Tuesday night in the church for Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Knecht and family, who will go to Shamokin P. M. Church. The Knecht family leaves a host of friends behind who wish them the best of success. Mrs. Lewis Stritzinger, Mrs. Mary Lloyd and Mrs. Achenson had charge of the entertainment.

Mrs. Patton Will Speak

Mrs. Margaret Patton will speak at the Mother-Daughter dinner at Rutgers Methodist Church tonight (Friday). Her subject will be "A Mother's Equipment".

Fire Company Meets

Shavertown Fire Company met on Monday night. All committees on the membership drive made their final reports.

Missionary Society Meets

The Searchlight Foreign Missionary Society of Shavertown met this week at the home of Mrs. Earl Hontz and heard an interesting talk of experience in missionary work by Mrs. Russell May.

Junior Prom Tonight

The Junior Class of Kingston Township High School will hold its prom tonight (Friday) in the high school. Donlin's Pennsylvanians will furnish the music.

Sunday Services At White Church On Hill

Rev. Harry Savacool, pastor of the White Church on the Hill, has announced the following services for Sunday: 10:30, sermon, "Motherhood, Instructive and Christian"; 7:30, special service of music with cornet and trombone selections and baritone solos.

Rummage Sale May 23-24

Final plans have been made for the rummage sale to be held in Luzerne on May 23 and 24 by the Ladies' Aid Society of Trucksville M. E. Church. Mrs. W. E. Roberts is chairman.

Local Picture Exhibited

Baby Clinic Conducted By VNA Help To Mothers

Mothers of this section are taking advantage of the baby clinic held each Thursday afternoon at 2 in Shavertown M. E. Church parlors under the supervision of West Side Visiting Nurse Association.

The clinic was begun about 12 years ago and is free to all mothers. Each year the class grows in size. Miss Eve Mauser, registered nurse, is the supervisor. She works with four local physicians who contribute their services. The mothers appreciate and thank the Keller Class for its part in securing the services.

Welcome Pastor and Wife

The congregation of Shavertown M. E. Church held a reception in the church parlors this week to welcome the return of Rev. and Mrs. Russell J. May to the church for their second year.

Rev. Frankfort Lists Services At St. Paul's

"Prayer from the Viewpoint of Modern Science" will be the subject of the sermon at the 11 o'clock service on Sunday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, where Rev. Herbert Frankfort is pastor. Mrs. Thomas Hontz will speak at a special Mothers' Day service at Luther League devotions at 6:45. Another service honoring mothers will be held at the vespers at 7:30, when Rev. Mr. Frankfort will preach on "The Ministry of Motherhood". A rose will be presented to every mother attending. There will be special music.

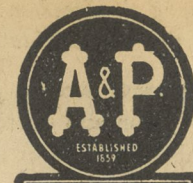

During the week the following services will be held: Tuesday, 7, Boy Scouts; 7, Young People's Choir; Wednesday, 8, Ladies' Auxiliary.

Will Mark Ascension Day

A service of worship will be held on Ascension Day, Thursday, May 18, at 7:45 at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown. Ascension Day falls 40 days after Easter and is one of the most significant festivals of the church year. Rev. Herbert Frankfort, pastor, will preach on "What the Association Means To Us." The public will be invited.

Father And Son Dinner

The Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, will have a father and son dinner on Friday night, May 19, at 6:30. J. M. Horner, boys' secretary of the Wilkes-Barre Y. M. C. A., will be the speaker. The committee has as members Charles Dressel, Stanley Davis, James Hartman, David Spry, Paul M. Winter, Fred Malkemes. Reservations can be made by calling Dallas 105.
