Will Take Collection For Bishop's Jubilee

A collection for the jubilee purse to be given Most Rev. William J. Hafey, Bishop of Scranton, on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood, will be taken up in all Catholic churches and chapels of the Scranton diocese on Sunday. Contributions will be made in special envelopes provided for the purpose on which there is a place for the name, address and parish of the contributor and the amount. After each parish has tabulated the collection, the envelopes will be forwarded to the Bishop's office.

This is the first of three collections to be taken up. The other two collections will be on August 13 and September 24. Generous contributions are expected to be made as a personal testimony of esteem for the spiritual leader of the diocese and it is hoped to present Bishop Hafey with a purse of sufficient proportion to permit him substantially to further charity work in the diocese.

No, our figuring is not wrong. Mathematically, it's incorrect. BUT, we're figuring the cost of electric cookery... and it is right. Because three meals for four people—a full day of eating—cost only 7 1/2 cents to cook electrically.

This low cost was proven by our home economics director in three recent public demonstrations in which your neighbors checked the cost. It had to be right.

Why not call us for full information about the low cost of cool, clean, healthful electric cookery? Do it right now.
