

Will Present Minstrel Sept. 15

Denton Tefrey Will Direct Church Affair

The three choirs of Truckville Methodist Church will present a modern minstrel show in Kingston Township High School, Friday, September 15 at 8 p. m., under the direction of Denton Tefrey of Wilkes-Barre.

The opening chorus will have a gypsy setting and solo parts will be sung by Mrs. George Reynolds, Jr. End men will be Willard Woolbert, Clarence Jones, Ray Gemmel and James Trebilcox. Interlocutor will be Sam Davis.

A chorus of sailors will take the audience to many lands. Soloists in these scenes will be Mrs. Harold Croom. Mrs. Harold Marth, Sally Wagner, Betty Palmer, Grace Morris, Fred Finney, Bob Bachman, Sam Davis, James Trebilcox, Willard Woolbert, Dick Cease, Clarence Jones, Betsy Reynolds and Billy Griffiths.

An appropriate patriotic scene closes the show with Mrs. Croom as Miss America.

The proceeds from the show will be used to purchase necessary goods and music for the choir. Tickets may be purchased from choir members or at the door.

Mysteries of the photographic dark room are brought out in the open at the New York World's Fair. In two of the exhibits, photographic printers work behind amber glass instead of in the dark, and the public can watch photographs being developed and printed.

Free picnic grounds have been provided for visitors to the New York World's Fair and family groups daily lunch in the open air on benches and tables especially set out for them.

Don't look now, but the only oil in the oil well derrick that pould away day in and day out at the petroleum exhibit of the New York World's Fair is used to prevent squeaks in the machinery.
