LAKE SCHOOL DIRECTOR CANDIDATE

Louella Gosart of Harvey's Lake, daughter of the late Jacob C. and Mary E. Gosart, is the only woman candidate for school director in the Back Mountain Region. Miss Gosart is President of the Lake Township Republican Club and is a member of the Young Republican Clubs of Pennsylvania. She is a member of many civic organizations and has been active for years in community and social welfare work. Her educational background includes Philadelphia schools, Wyoming Seminary and Wilkes-Barre Business College. She feels that women should be represented on the school board and that every effort should be made to secure the high rating Lake Township schools formerly had. Her father was for years a general merchant at the Lake and her mother served as postmaster.
