Veterans To Have Part In Dedication Of New $60,000 Grade School Today

Judge W. A. Valentine Principal Speaker At Exercises This Afternoon At Trucksville

Kingston Township's new, $60,000, WPA-constructed grade school building—hailed as one of the most modern school buildings in this section—will be dedicated at formal exercises this afternoon (Friday) at 2:30.

Judge W. A. Valentine will be the principal speaker. Other speakers will be Alfred Clifford, president of Kingston Township Veterans' Association, which will present an American flag to the school; John L. Earl, president of the school board and who will accept the flag in behalf of the district; Harold Leidy, commander of Black Diamond Post, No. 395, American Legion, and a representative of the Works Progress Administration.

Rev. Harry M. Savacool, pastor of Trucksville Methodist Church, will invoke divine blessing and Rev. Father Lawler of Kingston will pronounce the benediction.

The boys' lyric chorus of Trucksville, directed by Alfred Milliner-Camp, and a drum corps made up of sons of veterans from Kingston Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will provide music.

The new building replaces the structure destroyed by fire on December 12, 1937. It is of brick construction, and contains eight large-sized rooms. The ceilings are sound-proofed and part of the building is equipped with "electric eyes", which automatically turn on the electricity when the light from the windows is inadequate for good vision.

The modern motif is noticeable in such features as the linoleum floor in the building which will be used for the first grade. The points of the compass are inlaid, with a polar bear guarding the north, a monkey at the south, a bison to symbolize the west and a camel for the east.

Children in the first to sixth grades will use the building. In locating the new building, the directors were able to provide more space for playground and as a result children will have facilities for recreation impossible when the old building stood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Doty and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thorpe and sons, Gerald and Jean of Vestal Center, N. Y., visited Mrs. Louise Lyne over the week-end.

The host of friends of Bob Bulford, Sr., of Trucksville will regret to learn of his illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Johnson of Shavertown visited friends in the Delaware Bay section of Wilmington over the week-end.

Mrs. Thomas Hughes and daughter, Laura, of Trenton, N. J., former residents visited friends at Trucksville during the week.

Miss Lela Rogers of Washington, D. C., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers of Hillside, over the week-end.

Mrs. Samuel Davis of Carverton Road, who has recovered from a recent illness, is visiting relatives in Connecticut.

William Ockenhouse of Shavertown is in the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, seriously ill.

Mrs. Anna Heathcock has returned to Shavertown to make her home with her son, William, after visiting in the West.

Gosarts Open New Store In Central Shavertown

A new home-owned store opened in Shavertown yesterday when Charles W. Gosart, moved across the street into his new three-story building. In one sense the store is not exactly new for in spite of the new fixtures, new merchandise and all the fresh paint, the new store will function with the same old-fashioned service and reliability that has characterized Gosart's since its opening in the old building seven years ago.

The new store on Centre and Main Streets has an interior finish of spotless white with black trim. A large new Fogel refrigerator case has been installed to facilitate the handling of a large selection of fresh meats. Walter Gerlock will be in charge of the meat department and Charles and Walter Gosart and Mrs. Gosart will handle the grocery and produce departments.

Attractive red and green neon signs will brighten the windows of the store. The Gosarts will live in newly finished apartments on the second floor, and soon Mr. Gosart will finish a second apartment on the third floor. The new building and the new store are a tribute to the enterprise of the Gosarts and the loyal patronage residents of the community give their local businessmen.
