Firemen Honor Grid Champions

Heffernan Toastmaster, McCracken Is Speaker

For the third time this season, Kingston Township's much-feted championship football team, and its coach, Walter Hicks, were honored at a dinner in the Shavertown fire house on Monday night. The team members were guests at a dinner given by Ed Hall several weeks ago.

L. T. "Red" Schwartz, chairman of the committee from Shavertown Fire Company which sponsored Monday night's affair, welcomed the guests and introduced Tom E. Heffernan, Jr., sports editor of The Sunday Independent and who was a witty and gracious toastmaster.

Joe McCracken, coach of Kingston High School's Wyoming Valley champions, was the principal speaker. He drew from his experience as a coach at Berwick, G. A. R. and Kingston an interesting talk on football.

Morgan Rowlands, Jr. sang solos and the football squad, directed by Miss Dorothy Weaver, sang. Coach Hicks thanked the men who had given the dinner and his squad members. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the fire company, served the turkey dinner.
