Postscripts

a baby, news which pleases me mightily. So back to my type-machine for a while and then home to read until midnight from a book on fiction-writing, a subject which I sometimes suspect is beyond my limited intellect.

Tuesday, December 5: By times up and abroad early, pleased to inform anxious inquirers that Mr. Risley's condition is much improved, for many people ask about him and all wish him a speedy recovery. So to my desk, writing this and that. At noon visited by F. Kiefer, the columnist, who does tell me that he has received C. Sandburg's four volume work on Lincoln called "The War Years" and Fred, a student of Lincolniana, highly thrilled by Sandburg's books, which I do read are the best to be done yet on Lincoln. Later R. Hazeltine, the historian, does drop in and, finding me in an argumentative mood, does chide me, saying "Why is it that sometimes when I come in here you just won't agree with anything I say?" whereupon I did answer "Why is it that sometimes when you come in here everything you say is illogical?" a response at which he did guffaw and which I did think was very comical.

Pi Mu Sorority Meets

GAY-MURRAY NEWS

DEXTER

This beautiful new modern Dexter Speedex Washer will bring more happiness and thankfulness than any gift you could select for wife or mother.

$39.50 Buys a DEXTER

★—Here's just one of the many gift possibilities that you'll find here. There are all kinds of electrical appliances — Westinghouse Irons, Mixmasters, Beaters, Schick Shavers and Driver Tools for "dad", while in our second floor Toyland, there are all the new methods of "Billy and Ruth" toys.

Give Better Gifts

★—Santa found 300 kids waiting to welcome him last Saturday in our second floor Toyland and the old boy chuckled as he was asked for everything from dolls to horses. Santa received 100 letters from boys and girls who are taking part in our "Billy and Ruth" contest. These contest letters must reach us by Tuesday, December 9. Any boy or girl can enter the contest.

★—If winter holds off a few more days, we'll have everyone prepared for it. We recently installed hot water radiator heating systems for both Hobart and Raymond Furman at Mehoopany, a deep well pump for S. R. Ellsworth at Keiserville, an oil heater for Helen Aimey at Montrose and a bathroom for Guy Smith at Lake Winola.

★—Maple City Barn Equipment makes the cattle comfortable and saves work. Clarence Sickler, Hannelta Weaver and Fred Shouldice are recent Stanchion customers. Stanchions now sell at $2.25, while waterbowls are $2.75, but we are warned that these prices are sure to advance soon. You can save by buying now.

Attention Sportsmen!

★—We have all sizes of Kleenbore Ammunition. 22 Rim Fire and 25 Stevens Rim Fire are the only rifles which are not legal for deer hunting. Ice fishing for pickerel is open during December and January. We have the "Tip Ups".
