Kitchen Succeeds Garey As Head Of Fire Company

Shavertown Volunteers
Name New Officers;
To Decorate Home

Byron Kitchen was elected president of Shavertown Volunteer Fire Co. at its meeting in the fire house on Monday night, with about 40 members present.

Other officers named are: Howard Isaacs, vice-president; William Cobleigh, secretary; John Miles, treasurer; Dan Evans, financial secretary; Clarke Diltz, trustee; George Still, chief.

Retiring officers are Willard Garey, president; G. R. Downer, George Prater, L. T. Schwartz, Willard Lozo and George Still. Clarke Diltz succeeds L. T. Schwartz on the board of trustees, following 13 years in that office. Other trustees are Herman VanCampen, Cliff Leway, Stanley Davis and Harold Lloyd.

Francis Youngblood was named chairman of a committee to decorate the front of the fire house for Christmas. An effort will be made by the trustees to have all money due the company paid before the books are audited by Stanley Davis, Fred Malkemes and Clarke Diltz in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Pryn Mark Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pryn of Carverton were hosts to friends and family on Saturday night in observance of their 32nd wedding anniversary. Mrs. Pryn was Daisy Wilson of Dallas before her marriage. For many years Mr. Pryn has been associated with the Jermy Green Coal Co. and is known as a booster of sports for the young men of the community.

WATCHING FOR DEER, AVERETT FINDS FOUR BEARS WATCHING HIM

One local hunter did not have the same opportunity as the colored preacher who prayed "Lord, if you can't help me, don't help that bear!"

Harvey Averett, Sr., was hunting deer in the Noxen section and while on watch for a deer turned to see a female bear and three cubs a short distance away and coming towards Mr. Averett.

When Mr. Averett raised his gun, the bears detoured without any fuss and passed out of sight.

Services At St. Paul's

"Discouraged? What Then?" will be the subject of Rev. Herbert E. Frankfort's sermon at 11 Sunday morning at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Luther League devotions will be at 6:45. A candlelight Christmas service will be held at 7:30, with Rev. Mr. Frankfort delivering an appropriate message.

New Bulletin Board

St. Paul's Lutheran Church has expressed its appreciation for a gift of a new announcement board, donated by Sheldon Fahringer and Newton Ness, who have erected the board in front of the church.

Dymond Still In Hospital

William Dymond is still at General Hospital, where he has been convalescing from a broken leg. It was hoped he would be able to come home after the weights were removed on Tuesday but it is likely he may have to stay at the hospital a little while longer.
