THE CHRIST CHILD

(The following poem was written by the pupil of the fifth grade of Dallas Borough schools, whose teacher is Miss Mary Morgan.)

Some shepherds were watching their flocks by night,
 When suddenly they saw in the sky a bright light.
 Then an angel appeared and said unto them,
 That the Christ Child was born in Bethlehem.
 And the shepherds made haste and followed the star
 When led to a manger that was afar.
 To their surprise it was a baby boy
 Which was to bring the world much joy.

Campus Brevities

The beautifully decorated halls of the Secretarial Department of College Misericordia made a lovely setting for the Christmas Party held by the Secretarial Science Club this week. Sebastiana Licata was general chairman of the affair.

Articles of food for Christmas baskets to be distributed by students before their vacation begins today were collected at an "Abnegation Party" held by the Junior Class last Thursday morning. Miss Elizabeth Grady was general chairman.

The Home Economics Club, which directed the collection of gifts for the Christmas baskets, made plans for its work at a meeting on Monday.

Looking beyond Christmas vacation to the New Year, the Physics Club, at its meeting December 14, made plans for a reception for new members next month. Miss Jane Croop is president of the club.

Gowned in white satin, with neck clips of green spruce and bows of holly red, the Choric Speech Choir of the college made a lovely appearance when it appeared at the Christmas party of the Catholic Daughters of America in Lady of Victory House, Wilkes-Barre. The program was presented under the direction of Miss Mary V. Nolan, head of the speech department and who introduced Choric Speech at Misericordia.
