

Luzerne Five To Make Its Bow

Morgan's Quintet Will Meet First Test

Basketball fans will have an opportunity to see the Luzerne team in action on its home floor tonight (Friday) against Old Forge High in a game that should show what the Luzerne five has in the way of basketball ability.

According to Coach Dake Morgan the local boys are small but will make that difference up in speed and accuracy. This writer watched the team in action during the week against former Luzerne stars and this year's squad really showed class, both in passing and shooting.

In former years local squads were built around one individual, but since Morgan took over he has been training two boys instead of one around whom to build his team. His reasons for this: "In former years local teams were built around one man who was generally a very good shot, but during the course of the season if he happened to be injured there was no one to take his place. But our new system of building our team around two men instead of one will always give us one player on whom we can depend."

Crossin, the smallest man on this year's squad, is about the fastest man to play on a local team in some time and the fans will get plenty of thrills watching this youngster perform.

Luzerne is known for its basketball teams and this year will be no exception. All that is necessary now is that the fans support this year's team.

On January 1 the team will play the Alumni at the high school. After the game a dance will be held. This is a yearly affair held by the Senior class.

Mullay Girls Defeat Central

Miss Honeywell And Psolka Lead Scoring

The Mullay Shoe Repair girls' team thoroughly shelled the second place Central Cafe team by taking two games and total pins for three points. John Psolka and Miss Honeywell led the scoring for the girls, while Polly Evans was the only Central bowler who did any hitting.

Spinicci's Team Breaks Record

New Single Game High Of 1048 Tops Old Mark

The Spinicci Garagemen broke all records last week in the West Side Merchant's Bowling league. A new single game high of 1048 pins was recorded, beating the former record of 1019 held by Sterling's. The three game high was also smashed when the Garagemen hit 3054, beating Sterling's 3015 score.

The Spinicci team took all three games from Tedo Merli's Bileggi Cafe team. Joe Simmons scored 637 pins for Spinicci's, while the high man for the Bileggi's was Psolka, with 561 pins.

Lipo Insurance had tough opposition from the Larksville Orioles. Dorish led the insurance men with 594, while Corsti was high for the Orioles, with 530 pins.

Ben Sterling's team defeated the St. John's team all three games. Timmy Shumko led the Sterling's with 590, while Walko took high for the St. John's, with 494.

Buddies' Men's Shop with an entirely new lineup, took three games from the Luzerne Anthracite team. Joe Banks, captain of the Buddies', led his men with a 624 score, while Frank Rinks hit 569 for the Anthracite team.

Ziggy Karlotski led the Grablick Dairy team to a three point victory over Blight Bros. Ziggy hit 577 pins for Blight's and Charlie Kazokas, former Grablick's bowler led the Blight Bros. with a 598 score.

Individual single-game, Baker, 257 pins; Individual three-games, Baker, 684 pins; Team single-game, Spinicci Garage, 1048 pins; Team three-games, Spinicci Garage, 3054 pins. Hank Cromorosky is leading bowler with an average of 196-16.

their climb to regain their lead. George Moses continues to be the ace for Buddies. Buddies took four points from Al's Barbers. Al Regal has been greatly handicapped by shortage of bowlers.

Mike Ferraro dropped in with his Trickers and set the Quarteroni Bros. on their ears in the first game, leading by forty pins. The Trickers lost the other two games. Tony Caladie, hitting them hard in the Juniors, has climbed high up in the Big Ten. Stelma and Gaiteri led for the Trickers.

The General Cigar Boys resumed where they left off last week by taking the first two games from the Kelly Street Market. The Kelly Street team took the third game by enough pins to take the extra point. Kader led the cigarmakers with a 528 score, while Stefanye Krupa was high man for the Kelly Street-ers.

BACK MOUNTAIN ALUMNI LOOP TO OPEN SEASON JANUARY 3

Six teams made up of graduates of high schools in the Dallas area will open their season on January 3. Add Woolbert, Jr., president, and Jack Roberts, vice-president of the alumni league, expect to announce the schedule this week.

The alumni team from Dallas high school will play a practice game with Blackman Athletic Club next Wednesday night at 8 in the Dallas high school. Several weeks ago the Dallas quintet lost a game to Blackman by a one-sided score.

The teams which have agreed to take part in the alumni loop are Dallas Borough, Dallas Township, Lehman, Laketon, Kingston Township and Hunlock. Basketball has always been a favorite sport in the rural section and some fast action is expected in the new league.

Bowling Notes

You can't keep a good girl down, only in this case it was a team of girls, namely, the Mullay Shoe Repair bowling team. Last week these girls defeated the Ferraro Trickers for three points. This week they repeated against the Central Cafe. Miss Honeywell is attracting much attention every Friday night by her stellar bowling.

Purvis blushed with embarrassment when the girls took that first game. After they took the second game, Purvis was given smelling salts. He fainted.

Captain Yantacka and Andy Charnitsky took it upon themselves to stop those General Cigar boys after losing the first two games. Yantacka, with his 213 game, and Charnitsky, with 196, was too much for the Cigar boys to overcome.

Adams of the cigar team has a loud husky voice that is heard all over the building. On inquiring as to his ability to shout so loud, we found out he is champion hog caller from his neck of the woods. He carries a medal, too.

Mike Ferraro was on hand to determine what is wrong with his team after that beating they received from the girls. They got another lacing from the Quarteroni gang. Mike says he will cut off the boys' ration of rum on bowling nights.

Al Regal is one hard luck sponsor. His team can't get together all at one time and as a consequence Al loses his games. It would be a good act on the part of the teams carrying surplus bowlers to give Al a few of the bowlers.

George Kovacs had a good idea in mind in the Christmas donation he suggested, but it was taboo on account of the higher ups in the bowling game.

The new team for Buddies' Men's Shop promises some action in the Merchant's league. Banks, Brown, Nemetko, Kurpis, Covier, Van Horn and Mizenko will give the rest of the league something to worry about.

All games scheduled in the Business Men's League for Xmas and New Year's will be played at a later date. The alleys will be closed all day Xmas day.

The first half score sheets of the Brunswick Sweepstakes have been mailed and from now until the week of January 14 the bowlers must improve their averages. The finals will run for seven weeks starting January 14.

Smiling Bill Michaelson is greatly concerned about his team in the Business Men's League. The Bon Ton team is holding its own and right now holds third place. With the type of bowling these are producing, Bill doesn't have to worry about no copping the flag.
