Study Proposal For Kindergarten

PTA Names Committee To Examine Suggestion

The Parent-Teacher Association of Kingston Township will study the advisability of inaugurating kindergarten classes in the school district as a result of a discussion at the meeting of the township PTA on Monday night.

After members of the association had heard the names of five children whose parents would be interested in a kindergarten, Rev. Russell May, president, named Mrs. Bruce Coleman of Trucksville and Mrs. Harold Plack and Mrs. Russell Houser of Shavertown as a committee to study the proposal.

About 65 persons attended the meeting and heard an interesting talk on children's books by Miss Sara Senwick of the staff of Osterhout Library, Wilkes-Barre. Miss Senwick reviewed the new interest in children's books and made suggestions concerning the types of books which are best for young readers.

The Shavertown grade school orchestra, directed by Miss Dorothy Weaver, played. The treasurer reported a balance of $14.38.
