

Banks Awarded $271,393 Contract For New Road Through Kunkle

Hoped New Link Will Be Completed By August; Both Road And Creek Will Be Re-located

The contract for constructing 5.61 miles of concrete highway on Route 92 between Lutes' Corners and Dallas was awarded this week to Banks Construction Company of Wilkes-Barre, which bid $271,393, the lowest figure received.

The same company constructed the 3.5 mile link from Evans' Falls to Lutes' Corners, which was completed last Fall. Its bid on that job was $250,000.

It is expected work on the new stretch will begin within a few days. The contract calls for construction of the road in 110 working days, which would mean that it would be completed about the middle of August.

Joseph Banks, president of the construction company, said the new link will be 20 feet wide, two feet less in width than the stretch built last year. For a good part of its length, the highway will be re-located, eliminating most of the winding curves which are a hazard on the present route.

The road will be built by the State Highway Department, with Federal aid and will require the use of workmen furnished by the State Employment office from WPA rolls. As many as 300 workmen will be employed on the job at a time.

There will be no large bridges to be constructed on this contract, but nine concrete box culverts are called for. At several points the channel of Bowman's Creek will be straightened where it interferes with the right of way.

The highway will end 2.8 miles north of Dallas, and will be joined eventually by the final link, which will extend from Trucksville, past Dallas, to its junction with the new concrete.

Turpin, Wallis Oppose 'Bosses'

Charge GOP Leaders Ignore Voters' Rights

Republicans will have an opportunity to show their independence on Tuesday when the State primary election will be held.

So-called organizations have selected a group of candidates and are claiming that these, and only these, are candidates worthy of support. Political independence, the right of free thinking, the right to vote as one's conscience dictates are supposedly to be sacrificed.

For the honorary election of National Delegate to the Republican convention two of three men who have filed papers are to be chosen. Those chosen will have a voice in saying who will be the party nominee for the Presidency. Likewise, they will vote for a running mate, and also vote on the party platform.

The candidates are: John B. Wallis, Jr., independent Republican, and Percy A. Brown and Andrew Hourigan, hand-picked by an "organization". A voter may vote for two. John B. Wallis, as the ballot will show, "promises" to support the popular choice of the party in his district for the Presidency. Messrs. Hourigan and Brown "do not promise to support" such choice.

Mr. Wallis, Jr., is free of political domination and bossism. That is the issue, squarely, fairly, so far as it relates to the election of a National Delegate.

Dr. C. Murray Turpin is running independently for the party nomination to Congress. He has faithfully served in years past, having made a record for painstakingly caring for every interest of his constituents. He is opposed by J. Henry Pool, chairman of the Republican Committee in the county. Dr. Turpin seeks a nomination through choice of the people. Chairman Pool does also, but he was in position to have himself named on an "organization" slate.

BOATHOUSE AT RESORT SUFFER AS LOOSE ICE BATTERS FOUNDATIONS

Old Man Winter has taken a heavy toll of property at Harvey's Lake, according to Chief of Police Ira C. Stevenson.

He estimates floating ice, wind and the rapid rise which followed the heavy rains several weeks ago have caused about $1,000 damage at the summer resort. Seven boat houses and pavilions have fallen into the water when foundations collapsed.

A new boat house of Ted Frantz, owner of Stonehurst at Alderson, collapsed on Saturday and a motor boat which was trapped inside was saved with some difficulty.

Wilcox Emphasizes He Is In Election To Win

Spiking a report that he is "not interested" in being re-elected as a Republican committeeman in the North District of Dallas Borough, Morgan Wilcox, borough councilman, yesterday emphasized that he is in the race until the last vote is counted. "The report that I am not interested in winning is an absolute untruth," Mr. Wilcox said. "If I were not interested in being re-elected I would not have filed my petition as a candidate." Mr. Wilcox also made it plain that he is pledged to support Peter D. Clark of Dallas for District Chairman, a decision he reached, he said, in justice to Mr. Clark's "efficient and progressive leadership" during the last two years.

Yaple Checks Springs Effected By Flood

A check-up of springs and wells along the Susquehanna River was started by Health Officer John Q. Yaple on Monday. Later, Mr. Yaple and other health officers assisting in the job make tests to assure owners that their wells and springs are pure again.

Girard 'Hummers' Make Plans For Yearly Dinner

The annual dinner of Girard College alumni will be held on May 16, it was announced at a meeting last night in Wilkes-Barre, when plans for the yearly event were made. In an effort to communicate with all Girard "hummers" in the Dallas section, Harold Price has requested that all former students at the college communicate with him at The Dallas Post. Local "hummers" also are making plans to attend Founders' Day at the college on May 20.

Scouts Will Sponsor Moving Picture Night

To raise money to send local boys to Acahela, the Boy Scout summer camp in the Poconos, members of Troop 281, Boy Scouts, of Dallas will sponsor the showing of "Drum Taps", a moving picture starring Ken Maynard and a troop of Boy Scouts at Dallas Borough high school tonight (Friday) at 7:30. Members of the troop, which is led by Clarence LaBar, are selling tickets.

This matter of organization control and political independence is a bigger issue than anything else in the primary election.
