When It's Tea For Two, Try These Open-face Olive Biscuits

So extra-delicious, so easy to make ... they're grand for a big crowd, too

For tea, buffet parties or Sunday night suppers, these attractive Open-face Olive Biscuits make a big hit. And they're so easy and inexpensive to make!

Simply halve hot baking powder biscuits, spread them with mayonnaise and top with sliced stuffed olives. Or spread hot buttered biscuits with deviled ham and garnish with slices of sweet pickle.

But the tastiest spread goes unappreciated if the biscuits are not light, flaky, tender and golden brown. So clip the recipe now and treat your friends to these tasty Open-face Olive Biscuits soon.

Open-Face Olive Biscuits

2 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt

5 tablespoons triple-creamed shortening
2/3 cup milk (about)
Mayonnaise
½ cup stuffed olives, sliced

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening until mixture is as fine as meal. Add milk, mixing to a soft dough. Knead lightly about 20 seconds.

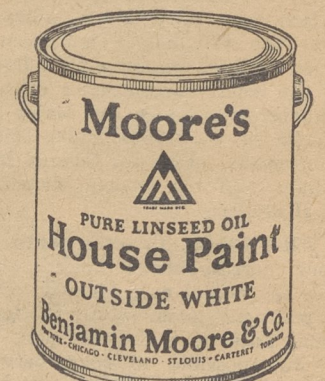

Roll dough to ½-inch thickness. Cut with biscuit cutter and place on baking sheet. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.) 12 minutes.

Split hot biscuits, spread each half with mayonnaise and cover with sliced olives. Makes 1 dozen biscuits.

(All measurements in this recipe are level.)

SAVE YOUR HOME WITH MOORE'S

★ Moore's covers 350 sq. ft. per gallon—2 coats—yet sells at only $2.75. Try other Moore finishes for your floors, walls or furniture. The same low prices prevail.

★ Improvements for the kitchen seem to be in order everywhere. A Cabinet Sink for Cecil Rose at New Milford, a Linoleum floor for Mrs. Muryl Krewson at Forkston, a Bottled Gas Range for May Gore at Factoryville, a Range Boiler for I. E. Earl at Falls, and a Westinghouse Refrigerator for Mrs. Del Stephens at Nicholson.

★ Here are the fresh bulk seeds, lime, fertilizer, and the good Oliver tools to stir the ground. Why not mix in a little good weather and raise good crops? Maybe a Simplicity Garden Tractor would help too.

★ Prime Electric Fence sure keeps the cows, pigs, and horses in their place. Henry Foote, Stanley Dymond, Andrew Yurish and Norman James tried it this week, and found that one hot fire is better than four cold ones. Prime sets sell as low as $9.95.

★ At the R. E. A. Electrical Circus at Lime Hill, May 17th and 18th, you'll see a mighty interesting line-up of the latest and best Electric Servants, and you'll see the Westinghouse line the leader in value.
