Emmons Speaker At '40 Graduation

School Board Approves Trucksville WPA Job

A communication from Rev. Peter K. Emmons of Scranton was received by Kingston Township School Board Monday night, accepting an invitation to deliver the principal address at Commencement exercises on Tuesday night, June 7.

A WPA project for the Trucksville grade school was accepted by the directors, with Bennett casting a dissenting vote. The plans and estimate of Karl Callahan of Pittston will be used and Mr. Callahan will receive 6 per cent of the cost, which the directors believe will not exceed $2,000.

J. P. Enke, representing the Department of Public Assistance, addressed the board, explaining new provisions governing WPA work. He said there are 63 persons on relief in the township eligible for WPA work.

Walter Stem, Falls, addressed the board, explaining his method of cleaning school septic tanks and the board decided to communicate with Mr. Stem later.

Applications from six persons who want teaching jobs were referred to James Martin, supervising principal. A motion was adopted giving County Superintendent A. P. Cope's office permission to keep a permanent filing of teachers' ratings.

Howard Appleton, secretary, submitted a tentative budget calling for expenditures of $90,877. The budget will be adopted on May 24.

John Earle was elected treasurer for the year beginning July 1 at a salary of $250. Luzerne National Bank was named as the depository for school funds. Harry Ell and Harold Yorks were elected enumerators.

Campus Brevities

Invitations have been issued to graduating students of public and parochial students to be guests of Misericordia registrants at a Sub-Freshman Day program tomorrow.

The guests will meet members of the faculty and student body, will be conducted on tours of the buildings and campus and will be entertained at sports and by special programs arranged by the college departments. The Home Economics Department will serve luncheon.

As a feature of Misericordia's observance of Music Week, the Adult Education Orchestra of Wilkes-Barre will give a brief recital at the college this (Friday) morning. The Music Department presented its students in their final recital of the year last night.

"Beedowzer", a suave wolf, and Dooshaker, a querulous grandmother, made their debut at the marionette show given at the college on Tuesday afternoon. The marionettes, constructed by members of the class under direction of Miss Mary V. Nolan, also included Oscar, in the part of Mr. Riding Hood, made and operated by Sister Marie Eloise of the college faculty; Sianne, or Mrs. Riding Hood, originated by Agnes Wall and the heroine, Marigold, as Little Red Riding Hood, operated by Mary Corrigan. Miss Nolan made Beedowzer and Miss Costa pulled Dooshaker's strings. The father marionette was animated by Alice Rizek, the mother and grandmother by Ruth Lenahan, Red Riding Hood by Rosalie Nolan and the wolf by Regina Kelly. Musical interludes were offered by Miss Jane Cronin and Miss Margaret Short.

During May devotions in honor of the Immaculate Queen are being held at the groto on the college campus. In addition to the act of consecration

Mothers And Daughters To Banquet Tonight

The Mother and Daughter Banquet will be held in the East Dallas Methodist Church tonight at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Hazle Hildebrand is chairman of the affair and is assisted by Myra Carlin, Viola Brace, Regina Fowler, Arline Moore.

Taking part in the program will be: Mary Pickett, invocation; Mrs. Bessie Thomas and Letha Mericle, readings; girls' choir, several selections; Mrs. Francis Freeman, talk.

The affair is a covered dish supper and those attending are urged to bring their own dishes and silver.

Firemen Extend Thanks

Trucksville Fire Company members have expressed their thanks to the Dallas and Shavertown volunteers for help in fighting the fire at the Sterling Casterline home on Carverton Road on Sunday. The firemen did a good job in preventing a spread of the flame.

Announcement

Members of Dallas Junior Woman's Club who have material to contribute to the rummage sale, are requested to communicate with Mrs. Charles Wheaton Lee, who will make arrangements to call for the donations.

Auxiliary Names Officers
