New Band Makes Debut; Rev. Day Is Speaker

Seventy persons attended the Parent-Teacher Association's last meeting of the year on Monday night in the high school and heard a fine program by the new high school band, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Weaver.

The band members, attired in white, played three selections, which were roundly applauded. Membership of the band includes 22 boys and two girls.

The treasurer reported a balance of $12.40. Rev. Russell J. May, president, presented a report from a nominating committee, headed by Mrs. Robert Taylor, and the following were unanimously elected: Sam Davis, president; Delbert McGuire, vice-president; Neil Henry, secretary; Esther Saxe, treasurer.

A petition was circulated asking the school board to establish a kindergarten.

The principal speaker was Rev. Gardiner Day, pastor of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkes-Barre, who spoke on American democracy, reviewing its development, and the threats against it today, and the

Savacool Starts Series On 'Crucial Questions'

The first of four sermons on "Crucial Questions for Modern Christians" will be preached by Rev. Harry M. Savacool, pastor of the White Church on the Hill, Truckville, at 7:30 Sunday evening. The topics were selected by ballot of the congregation from a large list of problems presented through the parish paper.

The topics to be discussed are: May 26, "How Should a Christian Keep the Sabbath?"; June 2, "How Can a Christian Keep from Hating?"; June 9, "How Can a Workingman Be a Christian on the Job?"; June 23, "Does It Do Any Good to Live a Christian Life in This Modern World?"

On Sunday morning at 10:30 the annual Church Memorial Service will be held in honor of members of the church who have died in the past year. The sermon topic will be "Their's is the Promise."

On Monday night at 8 Hon. Willard Shortz of Kingston will address the Men's Club. All men of the community are invited to attend.

On Thursday evening at 7:15 the mid-week Bible Study service will be held at the church, discussing the topic "The Life and Work of St. Paul."

steps Americans must take to preserve it.

Before adjournment, Rev. Mr. May extended his thanks to everyone who had assisted during his presidency and introduced the new president, Mr. Davis, who discussed plans for the year, which will begin in September.
