Mrs. Anna Ryman Is Laid To Rest

East Dallas Woman Was Born At Great Neck

A member of one of this section's oldest and most respected families, Mrs. Anna Ryman, 80, died on Sunday evening at her home in East Dallas. She had been in poor health for some time, but it was not until a few weeks ago that her condition became grave.

Mrs. Ryman's father tilled a farm at Great Neck at Vosburg, along the Susquehanna, a spot which has since became widely known for its scenic beauty. Mr. Ryman was born there. Later the family moved to Prospect Hill, about two miles above Tunk-

When she was married, she and her husband came to what used to be known as Ryman's Pond, later was named Catalpa Lake. They had a farm there until about 25 years ago when they moved to East Dallas, where she had lived since. She had been a member of the Free Methodist Church for about
