

Alonzo Prutzman Buried At Noxen

Life Long Resident Was Active In Fraternal Work

The funeral of Alonzo Prutzman, aged 63, who died early Friday morning following a lingering illness was held Monday afternoon from the late home on Ferguson Avenue, Shavertown, with interment in the family plot at Orcutt's Grove, Noxen.

Mr. Prutzman had spent his entire lifetime in this region where he was one of the best known and most highly respected citizens and where he had been active for more than thirty years in fraternal circles.

He was born at Springbrook on November 10, 1877, and his passing came just two days before his birthday anniversary. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ira Prutzman of Noxen. He spent his early days in Stull during the period of the great lumber boom in that region and was to follow the lumber business during the remainder of his life. For the past 35 years he lived in Luzerne Borough and Shavertown having been employed as yard foreman by the H. C. Johnson Lumber Company, Luzerne.

He was active in Odd Fellow circles in Luzerne County, serving as district deputy grand master, president and treasurer of Luzerne County Past Grands' Association and for a time represented Luzerne County on the board of directors of the Home for Aged Odd Fellows at Middletown. He was a member of Shavertown Methodist Church; Walnut Lodge 953, Outalissi Encampment 39, and Rebekah Lodge 45 of the I. O. O. F.; and Willow Grove Council 139, Jr. O. U. A. M.

Besides his widow, the former Olive Thomas, he leaves a son, C. Darrell Prutzman and a granddaughter, Jennifer Lane Prutzman of Providence, Rhode Island; a daughter, Mrs. Howard Woolbert, Shavertown; three brothers, Freeman Prutzman, Niagara Falls; William, Stroudsburg; Charles, Noxen; two sisters, Miss Alta Prutzman and Mrs. Russell Perrego, Kingston.

Members of Walnut Lodge 953 of Odd Fellows conducted services at the Prutzman home on Sunday night.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Russell J. May, of the Shavertown Methodist Church.

The many floral tributes were carried by Stanley Johnson, Gilbert Griffith, Raymond Gunton, Clayton Austin, Emil Rahl and Walter Hawke. Pallbearers, all members of Walnut Lodge 953, Luzerne Odd Fellows, were James O. Landon, Park Johnson, Willard G. Shortz, Herbert Austin, Albert Stitzer and Harry Koup.

Dramatics Club Will Give 'Happiness For Six'

The romantic comedy, "Happiness for Six", by Glen Hughes, will be presented by the Dramatics Club of Dallas Borough High School in the auditorium Thursday evening, November 21.

The play deals with a couple who are happily married. The wife leaves in a jealous flurry when she catches her husband with another woman. Does she sue for a divorce? What caused the kissing complex in the husband? What is the result of the reunion between the mother and the artist? Come and see.

The cast includes: Margaret Jones, Alma Nelson, Eloise Hunt, John Jewell, Louis Kelly and Robert Niemeyer. Mr. William Brickel is director.

EARLY ADVERTISER

Walter Prutzman, Trucksville, was a constant advertiser in The Dallas Post from 1892 to 1897, when he had a store and was postmaster at Brown's Corners, now Chashe.

GREECE CAPTURES THE SPOTLIGHT OF THE WAR

This map shows the new theatre of war in the Mediterranean area. The British fleet assembled at Salonika (A) to help Greece repel the Italian invasion. Florina (1) and Kastoria (2) were shelled by Italian troops advancing from Albania, while Piraeus (B), port of the capital city of Athens, suffered intensive attack from the air. Greek and Italian fleets were reported battling as Italy sought to seize Crete (D). Extension of the war gives the British navy use of bases at Cerigo (C) and in the Cyclades (E).

Citizens Boost Benefit Dance

Civic Groups Aid Athletic Groups

In an effort to raise money for its athletic fund, Dallas Township High School Athletic Council will sponsor a pre-holiday square and round dance in the high school gymnasium Friday night, November 26. There will be a 45-minute concert by the school band, under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Haley, from 8 until 8:45, after which there will be dancing to the music of Leslie Warhola and his orchestra.

An enthusiastic committee is determined to make the affair colorful and timely and is soliciting patrons throughout the township. They are pleased with the response from persons outside the township who have asked to have their names added to the patron's list. Committee members will hold an important meeting Monday night, November 18 at 7:30 in the school building.

General chairman is Fred M. Kiefer with Herbert Lundy, chairman of patron, program and tickets. Assistants are: Mesdames Starr, Mosier, Smith, Layou, Perrigo, Stritzinger, Richardson, Lewis, Richards, Walter, Elston, Levens and others. Floyd Chamberlain is treasurer and Miss Toney Kozemchak is secretary. Others cooperating are the school faculty under the direction of Prof. Lewis, Daniel Richards, representative of Rotary, Dallas Junior Woman's Club, Alum-

Hagen And Burr Speak At Lehman

Band Committee Reports Growth Of Uniform Fund

Two splendid speakers, Harry Hagen, teacher at the Scranton Mute School, and Victor Burr, columnist for the Wilkes-Barre Times-Leader, gave talks at the Lehman Parent-Teacher meeting in the high school auditorium Monday evening. Mr. Hagen spoke on "Preparedness Through Athletic Training" and Mr. Burr gave an Armistice Day talk.

A report from the band committee showed that considerable progress has already been made in raising money for the new uniforms and that at least two more programs are being planned to this end.

It was announced that lunches will be served at cost by the Home Economics Department to any students wishing to buy them and that night classes in home economics and vocational agriculture will be held in the high school in connection with the Adult Education program. Miss Eleanor Tretheway and John Sedler will be in charge of these classes.
