Campus Brevities

College Misericordia will sponsor the lecture to be given by Mortimer J. Adler on December 1st, in St. Mary's High School auditorium, 165 South Washington Street, Wilkes-Barre at 4 p. m. Mr. Adler's name has been linked for the past decade with the famous educator of Chicago University, Dr. Hutchins. Both have advanced workable theories in the art of making students read with thought. Mr. Adler is a young man, only 38. In a comparably brief career he has accomplished far more than the average scholar and professor with many demands upon his time. It is expected that the public will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing so noted a scholar, author, and lecturer.

College Misericordia observed the twentieth annual Education Week with a scholarly symposium in the College Theatre, Wednesday morning. Speakers were: Miss Catherine Kirchner, "Youth and National Defense"; Miss Catherine McCandless, "Education for Common Defense"; and Miss Miriam Farrell, "Perpetuating Individual and National Defense in the Interests of the Ideals of Peace."

Notify Fire Warden Before Burning Brush

Kunkle Fire Crew was called out the night of Election Day to extinguish a brush fire in the vicinity of Beaumont. On arrival, after considerable inconvenience, the Crew found that a brush lot was being cleared. There was no need for their services. Persons who plan to burn over ground are asked to notify their Fire Warden so that Fire Crews will not turn out where they are not needed.
