FRUGAL MENU IDEAS FEATURED AS THRIFT WEEK HONORS BEN FRANKLIN

If that dull thud was the budget hitting a new low; if the china pig fails to emit one clink—or if a new hat is your ulterior aim—then it's time to observe National Thrift Week and "Poor Richard's" birthday, come January 17th.

Leftovers aren't all hash, and budget meals are by no means meatless, tasteless, nutritionless. They're just the opposite, with recipes like these to go by:

Meat Roll with Green Pea Sauce (Use yesterday's leftovers) 1/2 cup all-bran 1/2 cup buttermilk 1 1/2 cups flour 1/2 teasp. soda 1 teaspoon baking powder 1 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup shortening

3 cups ground cooked meat 1/2 cup tomato catsup 1 teaspoon salt Soak all-bran in buttermilk. Sift flour, baking powder, soda and salt together. Cut in shortening until mixture is like coarse corn meal. Add soaked all-bran; stir until dough follows fork around bowl. Turn onto floured board; knead lightly; roll or pat into rectangle 1/4 inch thick. Combine meat, catsup and salt; spread in thick layer over dough. Roll like jelly roll; place in baking pan and bake in moderately hot oven (425 degrees F.) about 30 minutes. Serve with Green Pea Sauce. Serves 10.

Green Pea Sauce: Mince white sauce using 2 tbsps. butter, 2 tbsps. flour, 1 cup milk. Add 2 tbsps. minced pimiento, 1/2 cup cooked peas, 1/2 teasp. salt and 1/2 teasp. pepper.

Economy Health Salad (Vitamins Up, Cost Down)

1 Florida grapefruit, with sections cut in pieces 4 Florida tangerines, with sections cut in halves 2 ripe bananas, sliced 6 maraschino cherries, sliced Salad greens Mayonnaise

Use ripe bananas (yellow peel flecked with brown). Toss all fruit lightly together. Serve on beds of crisp salad greens. Top each serving with plain mayonnaise or whipped cream dressing (made by mayonnaise and whipped cream). Serves 6.

Brazil Nut Apricot Cobbler 2 1/2 Cups sifted flour 2 1/2 tbsps. all-phosphate baking powder 1/2 teasp. salt 5 tbsps. butter

Lehman PTA

A smaller than usual group of parents and teachers turned out to hear Miss Florence Baker Grey, librarian at Hoyt Library, talk at Lehman Parent Teacher meeting Monday.

HOW TO BE YOUR OWN DECORATOR

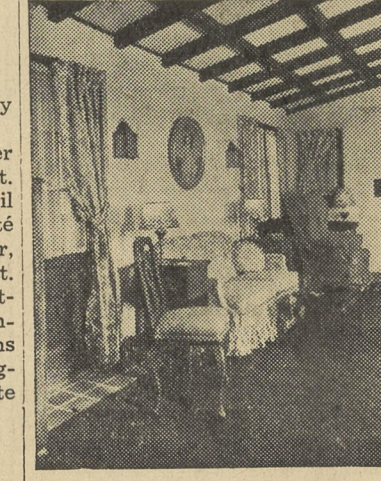

Curtains for Windows of Different Sizes

There is a question that comes like a wail, over and over again, in the thousands of letters my readers write me: "How shall I hang my curtains when there are windows of different sizes in the same room or the adjoining room?"

HELEN KOUES Director of Good Housekeeping Studio

being hung on rings may be pushed far to each side, when the windows are opened. They are an overdrapery intended for the winter, and should be taken down in the summer to permit the casements to open wide.

Different Curtain Lengths

The Group of Small High Windows

The problem is somewhat different when there is a group of three high windows above a sideboard let us say, in the dining room, or above a window seat, in the living room.

The same arrangement is generally used for a window seat, the curtains ending at the window sill. In some large rooms, however, full length curtains are used which are closed at night, concealing the window seat.

Or, again, one pair of full length curtains is used as an ornamental drapery and hung from top of window frame to the floor with a valance or swag between them.

a throat cold during the past week but is able to be around again. Miss Lucy Evans is confined to her home with the gripe.

Rev. Howard K. Reinhardt filled the pulpit at the Independent Baptist Church, Centerville, last Sunday evening, his topic being "Reasoning With God." He will preach there this coming Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, having as his topic, "Jesus, The Light of the World." Also at Beaumont in the evening, 7:30 o'clock.

It may not be "Personal" but it will be a delight to many persons to enjoy the fine skating on ponds and lakes of Orange.
