TRY SOME OF THESE DAINY BITS AT YOUR VERY NEXT TEA PARTY

Good things, 'tis said, come in small packages and edibles are no exception. Some things just naturally come little, like Brussels sprouts and tangerines; other are made little by you, for fun, convenience, variety.

Like a list of "little victuals"? There are: Tiny meat balls, small meat loaves, snowy rice balls, pearl potatoes, personal pies and individual layer cakes. Even stew is small but satisfying in private custard cups, and everybody knows the joys of single-bite canapés, sandwiches, relishes!

Brazil Nut Coffee Tarts

¾ cup light brown sugar
1/3 cup flour
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup double-strength freshly made coffee
2 tbsps. butter
1 Teaspoon vanilla
½ cup chopped Brazil nuts
6 baked tart shells
½ cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup top milk
6 whole Brazil nuts

Combine and mix sugar and flour; add beaten eggs. Scald coffee and milk, stir slowly into egg mixture. Cook over boiling water 5 minutes stirring constantly, cook 10 minutes longer, stirring occasionally. Add butter, cool; add vanilla and chopped Brazil nuts. Fill pastry shells and top with whipped cream. Garnish with whole Brazil nuts.

Hollywood Toasted Rolls

¾ cup Old English cheese
Fresh bread
Softened butter

2 tbsps. orange marmalade
Cream cheese until soft, add salt and marmalade and mix thoroughly. Cut bread in very thin slices, remove all crust, butter each slice on both sides, and spread top with cheese mixture. Roll as for jelly roll and fasten with toothpicks. Toast under moderately hot broiler until rolls are evenly browned. Remove toothpicks and serve at once. Approximate yield: 8-10 rolls.

* If bread is not soft and fresh, lay each slice on damp cloth and let stand several minutes before rolling.

Variation: Sprinkle chopped sweet pickle, pimiento or nuts over cheese mixture before rolling.

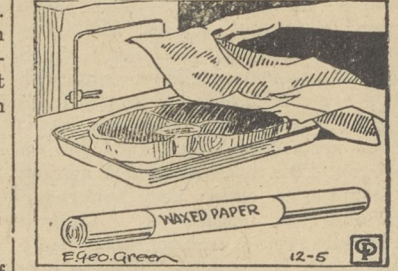

Personal Banana Meat Loaves

1 lb. ground raw beef
1 tbsps. chopped onion
¼ tsp. salt
¼ tsp. pepper
1 cup bread crumbs
¾ cup mashed bananas (1-2 bananas)
½ teasp. dry mustard

Is Hostess

Miss Margaret Gerlach entertained at her home on Monday evening Misses Gloria Chance, Jane Case, Jean Detrick, Dorothy Hunter, Marilla Martin and Ellen Gerlach.

Wife Preservers

Uncooked meat should not be covered closely when placed in the refrigerator. It should be unwrapped as soon as brought into the house, and a loose sheet of waxed paper may be laid over it.

Use all-yellow or slightly green-tipped bananas. Mix together meat, onion, salt, pepper and bread crumbs. Combine bananas and mustard and mix. Add to meat mixture and mix well. Form mixture into four or six individual loaves and place into well greased baking pan, not too close together. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50-60 minutes, or until done. Serves 4-6.

Midget Cheese Puffs

2 egg whites
4 teaspoons flour
Cayenne
2 cups grated cheese
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
Beat egg whites until stiff, add flour and cayenne and grated cheese. Mix thoroughly, form into small balls and roll in the crumbs. Fry in deep hot mazola (375 degrees F.) until golden brown. Serve hot on toothpicks. Makes 24 small balls.

Bit-Size Bran Dumplings

1½ cups flour
1 teasp. salt
1 tbsps. baking powder
1 egg
1 tbsps. melted fat
½ cup all-bran
½ cup milk

Sift flour, salt and baking powder together. Beat egg until light; add melted and cooled fat, all-bran and milk. Add liquid mixture to sifted dry ingredients and stir only until flour disappears. Drop batter by teaspoonfuls on top of hot meat stew; cover tightly and let simmer for 20 minutes without removing cover. Yield: 12-16 dumplings.

Small Southland Shortcakes

Add water to the ready prepared gingerbread mix (patterned after Mary Washington's 200-year old recipe) and bake in custard cups until done. While still warm, split crosswise and fill with diced Florida tangerine sections. Replace top half; top with whipped cream and garnish with additional tangerine sections. Serves 8.

Bite-Size Ideas

Julienne potatoes are nothing but miniature French-frieds. Get 'em ready to eat, or heat, in a jar.

Tangerines may be tiny, but they're large as life when you remember the calcium and Vitamin C in each "kid-glove" orange!

Wrap tiny-as-tiny meat balls in strips of bacon, skewer with toothpicks and broil.

Mile-high sandwiches are fun. Make a 2 or 3 decker with bacon, tomatoes, cheese and lettuce, using bread with crusts removed. Divide into four sections and spear each section with toothpicks.

Annual Pork Supper

Mid year pork and sauer kraut supper will be held at St. Therese's Church in Trucksville Tuesday, February 11. Mrs. Jacob Laux is chairman and Mrs. Jacob Gabel co-chairman of the affair.
