GAY-MURRAY NEWS

BIG DAYS AHEAD!

March will be a busy month here. Carloads of machinery, plumbing goods, roof, lime, fertilizer and seeds will be unloaded.

A COOKING SCHOOL March 21
 SPRING PARTY DAYS March 27 and 28

Our newest building—a 60-foot addition to our front warehouse, is ready for several carloads of bargain machinery to be unloaded soon. If you need a grain drill, disk harrow, corn planter or plows, you will make money by seeing us.

M. J. Rhinevault at South Montrose is improving his kitchen with a Rundle Cabinet Sink. Paul Nulton, the Beaumont undertaker, is doing the same with a Bengal bottled gas range. Good equipment makes good cooks better natured.

George Schaefer, Glenn Zenger and Stan Thomas of our plumbing force are busy at Mehoopany modernizing the Henning home for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prins. A bathroom, bottled gas and kitchen equipment, automatic oil heat and all the "fix-ins."

The new Hinman milker is a whiz. Dairymen like its simplicity—the cows like it because it milks at low vacuum. Ask us for a demonstration. William Stackura at Springville is a recent buyer.
