Radio Slogan Wins A Prize

Mrs. Howard DeRemer Gets $25 Baby Bond

Mrs. Howard L. DeRemer, of Dallas, is the lucky winner of a $25 United States Government Savings Bond awarded in the fifth week's $100,000 radio slogan contest, sponsored by a national soap company.

Names of five hundred other winners from all over the United States have also been made public. For submitting the best twenty-five word statements they will receive U. S. Savings Bonds aggregating $16,000 maturity value. The prizes include one $1,000 bond, twenty-five $100 bonds and 500 of the $25 denomination.

To date 2,630 of these bond awards have been made by the sponsors, who have been commended for their patriotism in selecting Federal securities as prizes.

Residents from every state in the union as well as the Hawaiian Islands have been among the lucky winners. Thus far weekly grand prize $1000 bonds have been awarded to Miss Constance Miller of New York City; Mrs. Kathryn Klemme of Tulsa; Mrs. Ada M. Boyer of Palmerton, Pa., and Mrs. J. D. McDonald of Clinton, Miss.

Britain's War Machine Wins Applause

London's children are getting pretty blasé about the spectacle of war machines, but youngsters in the rural sections of England still get a thrill out of the sight. Here they gaze in awe at a modern tank, stopped by the roadside after engaging in "round-up of parachute invaders" as part of Britain's constant anti-invasion drill.

Henney and Bertha Henney of Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Phillips visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wertman on Sunday.

A group of local ladies honored Mrs. Addie Austin on her birthday Monday. Present: Mrs. Craig Herdman, Mrs. Corey Miers, Mrs. George Landon, Mrs. Jane Mann of Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Eggleston, Vernon; Mrs. Carl Besteder, Centermoreland and Mr. Archie Austin of Beaumont.

Mrs. Anne Richards has returned from a visit in Endicott, N. Y.

The condition of Mrs. Marilla Felter, a patient in the Endicott Hospital, is reported slightly improved.

Nile Hess has accepted a position with Bethlehem Steel at Harrisburg.

Word comes from Hans Kramer, of 1129 Balboa Street, San Francisco, California, formerly of Kunkle, that he is well and enjoying a measure of prosperity. Hans is employed by a film concern and enjoys packing some of the news reels we see in the movies. He sends his regards to all and would like to hear from his local friends.

Mrs. Victor Rydd spent Monday in Wilkes-Barre.
