Is Guffy Back Of This?

"To look up and not down To look forward and not back

To look out and not in To lend a hand".

-Edward Everett Hale

The above words still hold true and should be the motto of every progressive citizen in these troublesome times. But it seems our present Legislative body at Harrisburg has once again started the "looking back process", in an attempt to investigate the Agricultural Extension Service of the Pennsylvania State College.

In our observations, over a long period of time, we don't know of any semi-official agency that has achieved so much good for the advancement of the general public and still remained outside the pale of political influence as the Agricultural Extension Service.

The Agricultural Extension Service, as administered by the Pennsylvania State College, has as its sole purpose, education, and so it has remained as an educational organization despite the many thwarted attempts to make it a regulatory agency or a political footstool for selfish individuals.

Each year, through its program of education, one is able to sense the sight and feel of the changes of practices in our agriculture through the influence of the Extension Service.

Times are changing, methods are changing and so must Agriculture. The old time methods are gradually being eliminated and the service that is keeping our agriculture abreast of the times is our own Luzerne County Agricultural Extension Service, bringing the latest methods of the Experiment Station to our farmers.

So, just a word to the wise. It would be well for our Legislators "to look up and not down" for despite their many efforts, it will avail them nothing to attempt to inject politics into a respected and wide-awake Educational System such as the Agricultural Extension Service.

If our observations of the conduct of the Extension Service are correct, it will breast no fear of the investigation. "The honest man is not afraid of his past". But it does seem trivial and non-enterprising to investigate a worth while organization, that is achieving results with a mini-

New Dallas-Harvey's Lake Highway Construction Assured This Summer

Five-Mile Link Will Complete This Area's Greatest Road Program

Bids for the new Dallas-Harvey's Lake Highway will be opened at Harrisburg next Friday, April 18, in one of the largest single day letting of contracts in the history of the State Highway Department. Scheduled bridge and highway improvements will cost an estimated $2,300,000 and include the improvement of 37 miles of highway on twelve different jobs in various parts of the State. All but two of the jobs will be paid for entirely out of motor funds as part of the Department's financed construction activities for the coming year.

It is expected that contracts on the Dallas-Harvey's Lake highway will be let quickly and that construction will start about June 1 or shortly thereafter. The new road will be approximately five miles long and will extend from the center of Dallas where it joins the partially completed Fernbrook-Dallas superhighway at Kuehn's Drug store. From that point it roughly follows in the direction of the old traction company right of way having at its other terminus a point just north of the Sunset bridge at Harvey's Lake. The route from Idetown to Harvey's Lake follows none of the old highway roadbeds, and except for short stretches where it follows the old traction company roadbed from Dallas to Idetown, will be completely relocated, doing away with all curves of any consequence. The pave will have three lanes, ranging from 33 to 37 feet at the curves. There will be five bridges of various sizes. The route has been surveyed to provide a minimum of waste in excavation and construction and the cost is not expected to be as heavy as that of other construction jobs completed or nearing completion in this area.

Construction of the lake highway and completion of the Trucksville-Fernbrook and Kunkle-Beaumont lem having just made similar conlinks early this summer will give cessions with the new maid so that this suburban area one of the finest we could be away for Easter. Spencer, of the United States Public Health Service on his return to New York aboard the American Export liner Excalibur from an inspection tour of Germany.

Dr. and Mrs. Spencer's boat arrived at 8 p. m. and Mr. Frantz and Mrs. Titman visited with them in their room at the Hotel Lincoln until 2 a. m. as the doctor recounted his experiences during six years in London, France, Germany and Finland. Dr. Spencer is a former Dallas boy, the son of the late Dr. Calvin A. Spencer. He was educated the Dallas schools, Wyoming Seminary and University of Pennsylvania Medical School. ### Worshipping Throngs Will Attend Special Services In Churches

The second greatest holiday of the church year-Easterwill be ushered in with Good Friday services in many churches of the Back Mountain region. These will be followed by sunrise services early Easter morning in a number of other churches. The late arrival of Easter portends smiling skies and balmy weather to add to the beauty of the festival. Special music and cantatas will contribute to the lighter side of programs while baptism and reception of members and Holy Communion will add a more solemn tone. The congregation of one church will dedicate a new altar and pulpit furniture with fitting ceremonies. In all of the churches there will be a profusion of beautiful and stately Easter lilies, palms and spring flowers, to greet the large gatherings of worshipers.

St. Paul's Church

Easter will be ushered in at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at Shavertown of which Herbert E. Frankfort is pastor at a Sunrise Service at 6 address will be given and several anthems will be sung by the Senior Choir.
