DALLAS FOLK SUCCUMB TO SPELL OF APRIL'S BRIGHT BLUE WEATHER

It was good to hear Tom Brown's saddle horse trot friskily up Lehman Ave. this week cheered on by shouts and laughter of Paul Clemow and Bob McCarthy. That means spring. We were delighted when Harry Allen announced triumphantly that the last trace of ice had left the lake on Saturday. It was jolly to have Hank Peterson and Harry Ohlman drop in to the office like truant school kids, their daily routine upset by a touch of spring fever. It did our heart good to hear Dr. Wyckoff's cheery request, "Send our paper back to Center Hill Road—mother and I've moved out for the summer". It's been delicious stopping by Clyde Lapp's garden and taking a sniff of his hyacinths and jonquils. It's exciting to go home in the daylight while crimson sunsets tint the hill. Yippee—it's spring!

Men of Church Seek Best Cook

"He-Man" Cooks Asked To Send In Recipes

Men of Dallas Methodist church are sponsoring an evening of instructive entertainment, motion pictures and surprises at the church Monday night.

Entertainment will include a demonstration of "Kitchen Free" Electric Cookery by Miss Blanche O'Neill, nationally famous home economist, and showing of a motion picture, "Vitaminized Cooking", for the first time in Wyoming Valley.

Biggest surprise of the evening will be the crowning of the best "He-Man Cook" in Dallas who submits the best recipe for a meat dish. Three best recipes submitted will be selected by qualified home economists and a prize awarded for the one adjudged the best. Each of the two runners-up will also receive useful electrical gifts.

In addition a grand prize—a complete automatic electric roaster—will be given to some member of the audience. Dinner guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dymond, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bracey, Mr. David Emanuel, Mrs. Harry Howell, Mr. and Mrs. George Hess, Miss Alice Brace, Miss Barbara Brace, Kenneth Brace, James Brace and Elton Brace.

Men of the church are anxious to have a large attendance as each person who attends will help swell the income for the church. There will be no admission or collection. A similar program will be sponsored by the men of Shavertown Methodist church on Tuesday evening at 7:30.

Purple Finches

Dr. Sara Wyckoff sends us word that she has half a dozen purple finches enjoying her bird sanctuary on Center Hill Road. Dr. Wyckoff and her mother have opened their summer home and are having an exciting time uncovering fresh shoots of hepatica, snow drops and crocuses.
