COLLEGE MISERICORDIA

String Quartette

The Glee Club of College Misericordia appeared at Irem Temple, Wednesday evening, at 8:30 o'clock, April 30, for its annual spring performance. A magnificent and inspiring program was given.

As a special feature the College String Quartette played. The Quartette is a new group organized this year through the efforts of Miss Marie Petruccio, a member of the faculty of the Music Department at College Misericordia.

Sodality Card Party

On Wednesday, April 23, at the College, the Blessed Virgin Sodality sponsored the annual Card and Bingo Party. The Misses Jean Zaleta and Angelina Agati were co-chairmen of the affair.

Sub Freshman Day

Sub Freshman Day, the occasion of the entertainment of High School seniors by the college was held Saturday afternoon, April 26th. The upper classmen entertained over 150 guests.

The Sub Freshmen assembled in the Lounge where they were welcomed by the Dean and other faculty members. The Little Theatre feature was a "Style Parade", sponsored by the Home Economics students; music was furnished by Marian Jones. A motion picture "Campus Life at College Misericordia" concluded the indoor entertainment. After visiting the various departments indoors, there was a W. A. A. Exhibition on the campus. Miss Jeanne Connolly had charge of an Archery Tournament which was held on the Hockey Field. The tournament consisted of clout shooting, target shooting at 30 and 40 yards.

The day concluded with an informal reception in the cafeteria, where Miss Jane Cronin, Vice President of the Senior Class gave an interesting address. Several musical numbers completed the program.

Congress on Poetry

Miss Mary Claire McCauley, '39 and Miss Regina Kelly, '43 of College Misericordia accompanied faculty members to the Congress on Poetry held at Fordham University, New York, Sunday, April 27th. The
