Nina Klowden

Nina Klowden, the Jinny Storey in "Mildstream," Mondays through Friday on the NBC Network, is an actress of brains as well as beauty. Although she compiled the highest record of any freshman at Northwestern University in 1939, she deserted school to become a radio actress, her life's ambition.

Jessie Ritchie Is Married At Lovely Garden Wedding

At a pretty garden wedding on the lawn of Orchard Farm, Miss Jessie Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Ritchie, became the bride of Willard C. Lauderbach, son of Mrs. Belle Lauderbach at 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Rev. Francis Freeman performed the ceremony before a trellis banked with palms and white gladioli. Mrs. William Baker played the wedding march and Mrs. Richard Johnson sang "Because" and "O Promise Me." Attendants were Miss Jean Ritchie and Arthur Keefer.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in gown of white marquisette and chantilly lace fashioned with square neckline, short train, and finger tip veil. She carried white gardenias. Jean Ritchie, twin sister of the bride, was attractive in blue net with beanie cap to match. Her flowers were pink roses and heather. Flower girls were little Nancy and Jessie Carey, who wore blue and yellow organdie dresses with summer flowers in their hair.

Mrs. Ritchie chose navy blue print with navy accessories and Mrs. Lauderbach black and white print with white accessories. Both wore shoulder bouquets of yellow roses.

A reception for one hundred guests followed the ceremony. Mrs. Lauderbach is a graduate of Dallas Township High School and has been employed at Percy Brown & Company. Mr. Lauderbach was also graduated from Dallas Township High School and is employed at the International Harvester Company in Wilkes-Barre.

After a short trip, the couple will make their home in Truckville.

Dallas Girl Scouts Close Lively Day Camp Vacation

With the crowning of "Miss Wildwood," a water carnival and a program, Dallas District Girl Scouts closed a successful and happy Day Camp period last week. Miss Elaine Avery was elected "Miss Wildwood" by popular vote. Her attendants, also elected by vote, were Elizabeth Parrish and Jean Schooley. Jane Harris and Joan Harris were flower girls. Miss Avery was presented with a Girl Scout ring.

Awards for perfect attendance at camp were made to Joan Harris, Jane Harris, Jean Schooley, Jean Monk, Peggy Greenwood, Barbara Metz, Elizabeth Parrish, Elaine Avery, Doris Monk, Rhoda Eddinger, Doris Rossman, Lois Avery, Nancy Metz, Elizabeth Sorber and Viola Rossman. Gifts were presented to Miss Mary Gill, supervisor of Wyoming Valley Day Camps, and to Mrs. Russell Case, Dallas District Camp chairman. Jean Detrick, assistant unit leader, and Mary Delaney, who worked on the water-front, also received gifts.

That camp means work as well as play is attested by the fact that many earned badges. Elizabeth Parrish received a badge for outdoor cook. Camp Craft badges were awarded to Pauline Ide, Peggy Greenwood, Elizabeth Parrish, Jean Monk, Barbara Metz, Betty Perry, Jean Schooley and Theresa Sedler. Elaine Avery and Doris Monk received Pioneer badges and the following earned swimmer badges: Elaine Colvin, Jean Schooley, Dianne Jewell, Theresa Sedler, Peggy Greenwood, Jean Clewell, Elaine Avery, Betty Perry, Louise Moss, Claire West and Beryl Colwell.

Events in the water carnival were: Back float, Beverly Cundiff; dead man's float, June Colwell; breast stroke, Joan Harris; side stroke, Louise Moss; front dive, Beryl Colwell; back dive, Theresa Sedler; push-off dive, Barbara Metz; crawl, Doris Rossman; surface dive, Mary Delaney; double swim, Barbara Metz, Theresa Sedler; fountain of youth, Beryl Colwell. Joan Harris was the winner in the candle race in the water. Barbara Metz, in the distance swimming, and Elaine Colvin and Barbara Metz in the melon fight under water. Rhoda Eddinger, Mary Delaney and Doris Rossman gave a fine exhibition of formation swimming. Florence Hausch and Viola Rossman greatly amused the spectators as water comedians.

After the carnival the following program was presented up in the woods: The story of Robin Hood by the Pioneer unit, with Rhoda Eddinger playing the part of Robin Hood and Doris Rossman that of Maid Marion. Mary Delaney was soloist. Pine Cone Unit acted out charades. Jean Monk announced the numbers and those taking part, and included Thelma Cundiff, Peggy Greenwood, Helen Scureman, Lois Sicker, Dora Sutton, Phyllis Sutton, Gloria Sicker, Janet Miers, Jean Johnson. The unit song, composed by Elizabeth Parrish and dedicated to Mrs. Case, was sung by the entire unit. Maple Unit dedicated their unit song to Florence Hausch, camp director. Beverly Cundiff sang a solo and Lillian Lerch gave a recitation. The entire unit enacted the song "Way Down in the Pom Pom Patch." Charlotte Gregory, Sue Sutton, Arline Kuhl, Patsy VanCampen and Jane and Joan Harris, of the Snowflake Unit, sang "Three Blind Mice" and "The Brownie Smile."

Eighty girls were registered at camp this year. The staff numbered fifteen. The camp included in all eight days, two days a week for four week, with three over-night encampments, one over-night camp away from Wildwood and two roller skating parties.
