GAY-MURRAY NEWS

SAVE THE COOK

Why work yourself into a stew over this canning business? One of our gas or electric ranges will help you to keep cool while fruit cooks quick. We have the canners, jar caps and kettles, too.

Every time we sell a Bengal Bottled Gas Range and that's often, we trade in a good used coal range. Just now you can take your choice of gray, green or blue enameled models at attractive prices.

There are 1000 farm homes in Wyoming County, yet only 290 have bathrooms. This news is for the other 710. It may be a long time before you can buy a complete bathroom set at today's low price of $48.00.

Clifford Pickett at Laceyville is harvesting an acre of oats per hour with his new A. C. Combine Harvester. The A. C. handles Rye, Oats, Wheat, Buckwheat or clover with the same efficiency. We have one more in stock.

Metal roofing is scarce, and the boys really are putting it on. Harry Christian at Montrose, Chas. Blossom at Nicholson, and Frank Barnes at Laceyville are recent buyers. We still have all sizes—Act Quick.

Jay Jennings at Meshoppen, Geo. Ross at Mehoopany and John Lengel at Factoryville bought threshers last week. Veto Kumet ordered a Corn Binder.

See us about a Silo and Blower.
