Twirlers And Cheerleaders Add Color To First Football Game

Saturday, October 4, 1941, proved to be an exciting day for all students of Kingston Township High School for they saw their football team come out, victorious over Plymouth Township High School in a well-played football game, the score being 20 to 0. It was also the advent of the combining of twirlers, drum majorettes, cheerleaders and band for the local school.

Between halves of the game the twirlers and majorettes paraded out onto the gridiron and presented a very colorful picture of drill formations.

The cheerleaders were dressed in all white uniforms with orange and black ribbons tied on the sweaters, being the only color.

The drum majorettes wore black skirts and white sweaters the only color being that of the school, orange and black.

The twirlers, who have just been chosen from a great number of girls who were anxious to take part in the activities, wore all white uniforms of a skirt and sweater combination. The twirlers are: Joan Phillips, Lois Sword, Harriet Mae Gibbons, Anna Spaziano, Shirley Malkemes, Alice Rodriego, Betty Hontz, Roberta Luft, Betty Hodgen, Marilyn Malkemes, Shirley Greenwood, Shirley Winter, Ruth Ness, Laura Adler, Peggy Greenwood, Lois Sicker, Drina Welch, Katherine Smith, Doris Henning, Mary Lou Boyes, Barbara Metz, Helen Sureman, Catherine Reed. The drum majorettes are June Parsons, Doris Jones, Ellen Sutton.
