

TRUCKSVILLE

Master Thomas Coleman of Rice street, who was operated on at the Nesbitt Hospital last week for appendicitis returned to his home on Wednesday.

The Firemen's Auxiliary is planning a card party to be held at the Hose House on November 21st. This newly organized group of women are making a real effort to aid the fire company and deserve the support of the community. Mrs. Neul Kester is the president.

Mrs. Thomas Jepsen, formerly of Trucksville Gardens, is now a guest at the Aged Ladies Home in Wilkes Barre, and will be glad to see any of her friends there.

Mrs. Harold Croom entertained her card club at her home on Cliffside last Friday evening.

Miss Phyllis Lyne of Harris Hill Road has secured employment in Newark, New Jersey.

Master Billy Myrick of Birchgrove, who has been ill for several weeks with an infection of the throat, returned to the hospital last week for a minor operation, and is now recovering satisfactorily.

Warren Meacham a sophomore at Lehigh University spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Meacham of Highland avenue, Trucksville Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woolbert and infant daughter Jane Schooley have returned to their home in Bloomsburg. Mrs. Woolbert is the former Miss Ruth Schooley.

Mr. James Carr of Philadelphia, visited Miss Elsie Updyke of Mt. Greenwood Road.

Mrs. Harry Ritts, Jr., has returned to Wilmington, Delaware, after spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Still, Mr. Ritts is employed by the DuPont Company.

Louis Wilcox, of Chase Road, who has been ill for several weeks, was operated on at the Nesbitt Hospital on Wednesday morning.

Leroy Thompson of Huntsville Road is ill with tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Croom entertained the Board of Education of the White Church on the Hill, at their home on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Hannah Smith of Oak street celebrated her 81st birthday on Tuesday. She was greeted by many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hemenway of Huntsville Road spent Sunday with their son, Charles, at Iilon, N. Y.

Mrs. Frank Hawke entertained her card club at her home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eddy and daughter, Nancy Jane, are occupying the home on Oak street recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cease who have gone to Connecticut. Mr. Eddy was transferred to the Wilkes Barre office of the Bell Telephone Company from Harrisburg.

Frank Mathers of Carverton Road was called to Washington, D. C., on Monday by the serious illness of his daughter, Ruth, who is a nurse in that city.

Mrs. Edward Mullen of Jersey City is visiting her sister Ruth Boyle of Hillside who has been ill with pneumonia for several days.

Mrs. Bernard Whitney, Fernbrook Road, entertained the following on Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Jones of Kingston; and Mr. and Mrs. James Goodwin of Trucksville.

Tomorrow Mrs. Whitney will entertain her card club at a luncheon bridge.

Philip Carle of Harris Hill has secured employment in Jersey City, New Jersey.

Drama In The Courtroom

Given plenty of pulchritudinous encouragement by his client, played by Joan Banks, the defense attorney, portrayed by Ted de Corsia, makes a stirring courtroom plea for acquittal in a scene from "Famous Jury Trials" heard Tuesday at 9:00 p. m., EST, over the NBC-Blue Network.

Miss Edythe Pollock Entertains At Party For Louise Roushey

Miss Edythe Pollock entertained Wednesday night for Miss Louise Roushey who will leave December 1 for Bloomsburg to assume new duties in Girl Scout work. Miss Roushey has done a splendid job both in her teaching and scout positions and it is with genuine regret that parents and friends see her go.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Coolbaugh, Mrs. Martin Porter, Miss Louise Hewitt, Miss Ruth Lameroux, Miss Bernice Spencer, Miss Bertha Sutliff, Miss Adeline Burgess, Miss Marion Young, Professor and Mrs. J. M. Martin, the guest of honor and the hostess. Miss Roushey was presented with a lovely brief case.

Mrs. James Mericle Is Hostess to S. S. Class

Mrs. James Mericle of Shavertown was hostess to members of the Ella Moore Class of East Dallas Methodist Church at a supper meeting on Tuesday evening. Assisting her were Mrs. Stanley Moore, Mrs. Paul Carlin, Mrs. Charles Weiss and Mrs. Jeanette Dickinson. Others present: Mrs. Ben Brace, Wilma Brace, Mrs. Arline Moore, Mrs. Howard Patton, Mrs. Ruth Bertram, Mrs. Winfield Brace, Mrs. Ted Wilson, Mrs. Robert Fowler, Mrs. Fred Hughes, Mrs. Harry Martin, Mrs. John Hildebrand and Mrs. Ralph Weaver.

Senior Play Cast

The following cast has been selected for the Kingston Township Senior Play, "The Kid," which will be presented in the auditorium of Kingston Township High School on December 19: Bud Williams, Wilma Hunt, Howard Deiter, Helen Staub, Sarah Breslin, Austin Meacham, Russell Greenwood, Betty Ness and Doris Henning.

Youth Fellowship Class

The Youth Fellowship Class of the Trucksville Methodist Church recently held a party. Prizes were awarded to the following people: Louise Gregory, Hazel Hughey, Elsie Updyke, Bessie Linberry and Virginia Cope. Games were played and refreshments were served.

Township Teachers On Convention Program

The following Kingston Township teachers will participate in the Northeastern Convention of the Pennsylvania State Educators Association which will be held in Scranton on November 15 and 16: James A. Martin will be a speaker at the session of District Superintendents and Supervising Principals, which will be held on Friday afternoon at Scranton Central High School. Miss Esther Saxe will attend as a member of the House of Delegates being a representative of the County Branch of the Pennsylvania State Educators Association. Miss Ruth Howell will be a speaker at the English Session on Saturday morning. Miss Hilda Staub president of the Library Group will preside at the Library Session which will meet on Saturday.

Mrs. Lester Hoover Is Hostess To Bible Class

Mrs. Lester Hoover, Fernbrook, was hostess to members of the Dorcas Bible Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, Tuesday evening. Attending were: Mrs. Harold Ash, Mrs. J. A. Batey, Mrs. John Edwards, Mrs. Harry Ell, Mrs. Ralph Franklin, Mrs. Charles Gosart Jr., Mrs. Kenneth Huey, Mrs. Jesse Kemberling, Mrs. Fred Malke, Mrs. John Owens, Mrs. Richard Malke, Mrs. John Owens, Mrs. Richard Rudy, Mrs. W. E. Thomas and Mrs. Theodore Woolbert.

Baked Ham Supper

Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold a baked ham supper Thursday evening, November 20, starting at 5:30. Reservations can be made by calling the parsonage.

Red Cross Notice

Any one needing additional yarn or any one who has completed articles for the Red Cross should get in touch with Mrs. Arthur Culver. Mrs. Oswald Griffiths would be glad to know names of people who are willing to lend machines for Red Cross sewing.

East Dallas Ladies Complete Plans for Annual Turkey Dinner

Plans have been completed by the women of the East Dallas Methodist Church for their annual turkey dinner which will be held at the church Tuesday evening, November 18. Serving will start at 5:30 and continue until all are served. Menu: tomato juice, turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes, sweet potato puffs, peas, carrots, creamed turnips, cabbage salad, celery and pickles, cranberry sauce, pumpkin and apple pie, rolls and coffee. Committee in charge: tickets and publicity, Mrs. John Hildebrand, Mrs. Ted Wilson, Mrs. Nelson Moore; decorations, Miss Myra Carlin; dining room, Mrs. Winfield Brace, Mrs. Joseph Patrick, Mrs. Paul Carlin, Mrs. Robert Fowler, Mrs. Charles Weiss, Mrs. Fred Hughey, Miss Arline Moore; kitchen, Mrs. Ben Brace, Mrs. Jeanette Dickinson, Mrs. Alfred Moore, Mrs. Lawrence Swank, Mrs. Ralph Weaver, Mrs. Harry Martin and Mrs. Maude Wesley.

Calendar of Events At White Church on Hill

Guest Artists at the Music Service Sunday evening at the White Church on the Hill, Trucksville, will be Robert Henderson, Flutist, of Forty Fort and of the Dallas High School Faculty, and Robert Morgan, Organist of the First Baptist Church of Wilkes Barre. The public is invited to attend this service at 7:30 Sunday evening.

The Morning Worship Service on Sunday will be the seventh of the Worship Crusade. The pastor will preach on the topic "Keeping Our Eyes on God."

The second Session of the Bible Conference will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30. The speaker will be Rev. Clarence Andrews of the Wyoming Methodist Church and the topic will be "Why Read the Bible." Everyone interested in the Bible is invited to attend.

SWEET VALLEY

Lewis Button spent the weekend as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Stewart at Stroudsburg.

Mrs. Martha Bronson spent Tuesday at the parsonage.

William Farver who was injured in an automobile accident last week continues to improve. He is still a patient in General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quoss of Connecticut spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quoss.

Callers at the parsonage were: Mr. and Mrs. John Black, Bobby, Miss Gwendolyn Hoiser of West Pittston and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bennett of Laffin.

Philip Stewart of Stroudsburg, grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Ira Button, is recovering from another slight attack of rheumatic fever.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pall visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Witkowski on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Freas Morris announce the birth of a daughter, Linda Fae, at the family home, on Thursday, October 30. Mrs. Morris is the former Miss Hilda Edwards.

Mrs. Edith Long is recovering from an illness at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Loren Cragle.

Sunday Service
Sunday evening services of the Christian Church will close the series of revival services that have been in progress for the past two weeks. There will be an evangelistic message and also special music.

Celebrate Anniversary
Mr. and Mrs. McKinley Long entertained Mr. and Mrs. Earl White of Baltimore, Maryland, at dinner Sunday in observance of both the Longs' and the Whites' 25th wedding anniversaries. Others at the dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Leroy White and son, Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long, Clara Bell and Hazel White, Doris, June, Dayton and Jay Long. Callers during the afternoon were: Mr. and Mrs. Irving White of Kingston; William Ferrey of Dallas and Norman White of Sweet Valley.

SHAVERTOWN

Miss Virginia Miller has returned to her home in Elizabeth, N. J., after spending several days with her family on Center street.

Mrs. John Gallagher, Main street is confined to her home by illness. She suffered a gall bladder attack Friday morning.

Russell Cease spent the week end at his home on Franklin street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans had as guests Sunday Miss Patsy Gaylor of Wilkes Barre, Miss Annie Thomas of Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Evans of Scranton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malkemes and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Woolbert will be members of a party going to Philadelphia Saturday to see the Pennsylvania-Army football game.

Alfred Ringstrom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Ringstrom of Trucksville has gone to Wilmington to take a position with the Duponts.

Private Robert Garris of Fort Belvoir, Virginia spent the week end as the guest of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garris of East Center street, Shavertown.

Mrs. Edward Hall and daughter Anne, of South Main Street, and Miss Marjorie Nichols of Warden Avenue, Trucksville spent the week end visiting the former's son, Ted Hall of Pittsfield, Massachusetts. Mr. Hall is employed by the General Electric Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Laycock of Scranton, former residents of Shavertown, have announced the birth of a daughter, their third, Monday morning, November 10. Mrs. Laycock is the former Edith Eustice.

A request for more women to sew for the Red Cross in the Shavertown grade school every Wednesday has been made. This Wednesday the workers made children's dresses and snow suits.

Mrs. Guy R. Downer has returned from Passaic, N. J., where she attended the funeral services for her sister.

Mrs. Ella Howlett, Miss Lena Murock, Mrs. Oscar Dymond, Mrs. E. H. Williams and Mrs. A. G. Prater attended the W. S. C. S. convention in Plymouth Methodist Church on Tuesday.

Mr. Newton Ness and daughters, Betty and Ruth, attended the Penn. State vs. Syracuse game at Penn. State on Saturday.

Mrs. Stanley Shewan will entertain her bridge club at her home tonight.

Lois and Jeanne Malkemes, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Malkemes of Hillcrest Avenue are ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Diltz, Main Street spent Wednesday in Pottsville.

Miss Dorothy Hughes Is Bride Of Robert Royer

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Dorothy Louise Hughes, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hughes of Wilkes-Barre and Robert Dale Royer, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Royer of Trucksville. Ceremony was performed Thursday, October 23, by Rev. F. Waechter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Cushing of Kankakee, Ill. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Hopkins, former residents of Wilkes-Barre.

Robert was graduated from Kingston Township High School and is employed at the Kankakee Ordnance Works at Wilmington, Ill. The bride and groom and their attendants were all members of the 1941 class of Bucknell University.

Former Teacher Honored At Westmoreland Club

Miss Sara Pfahler, former girls basketball coach and teacher at Kingston Township High School, who recently accepted a position in Wilkes Barre City Schools was the guest of the Kingston Township High School Faculty at a dinner party on Monday evening November 17, at the Westmoreland Club, South Franklin Street, Wilkes Barre.

Those present were: Miss Sara Pfahler, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jenkins, Mr. Elwood Swingle, Mrs. Kenneth Woolbert, Misses Emily Lewis, Alice Hand, Esther Saxe, Althea Dymond, Pearl Averett Sophia Morris, Eleanor and Hilda Staub.

Kings Daughters Class Meet At Stark Home

Kings Daughters Class of Shavertown Methodist Church met at the home of Miss Jennie Stark Monday evening. Mrs. Edna Smith assisted Miss Stark. Mrs. Ruth Carr presided at the meeting and Mrs. Russell J. May led devotions. Others present were: Mrs. Charles Watkins, Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. Howard Woolbert, Mrs. James Mericle, Mrs. Blodwyn Jones, Mrs. Lawrence Coolbaugh, Mrs. Alice Frantz, Mrs. William Glahn, Mrs. Russell Greenwood, Mrs. Charles Hoffman, Mrs. Jack Jones, Mrs. Earl Lameroux and Mrs. Thomas Reese.

Bible Classes Meet At Christian Church

Members of the Adult Bible Class of Huntsville Christian Church met at the church Tuesday evening. Plans for a rummage sale to be held around December 1 in Luzerne were made. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Major, Mr. and Mrs. Nesbitt Garinger, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shaver, Mrs. Bertha Jenkins, Mrs. Frances Culp and Mrs. Ralph Frantz.

Calendar Of Events At St. Paul's Church

"Playing Fair With God" will be the sermon subject at St. Paul's Lutheran Church at their 11 o'clock service Sunday morning. In the afternoon at 3 p. m. St. Paul's congregation will take part in the Union Lutheran Vesper Service being conducted by Rev. Conrad Bergendoff at the Irem Temple in Wilkes-Barre. Professor Raymond Kuhnert, supervising principal of Dallas Township Schools will speak at the Luther League devotional service at 7 o'clock. There will be no evening service. Meeting of the week: Monday 7:30, Luther League business and social meeting; Thursday 2:00, Altar Guild, 4:00 Confirmation class.

Cora Steele Becomes Registered Nurse

Miss Cora Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Thompson of Main street, received word Thursday that she has successfully passed the State Board Examinations for registered nurses. Miss Steele is a graduate of the Dallas Borough High School, in the class of 1936, studied for two years at College Misericordia and took her nurse's training at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Starting Saturday at BENESCH & SONS GOODBYE WILKES - BARRE SALE

Our lease expires soon... and we've got to GET OUT! Sacrificing EVERYTHING We have in our store! Get here early... stay late!

$150,000 in Furniture, Floor Coverings, Stoves and Heaters... and More...

MUST GO REGARDLESS OF LOSS!

Doors Open 9 A. M. Saturday

Open Late Saturday Night