Wild Geese Visit Harvey's Lake

Just when things got pretty slow in the news-gathering offices of The Post this week, the annual Wild Geese story broke at Harvey's Lake. According to Chief Ira C. Stevenson of the Lake police, a flock of 50 honkers settled on the waters out there Monday night before continuing their trek to the North.

High winds and zero visibility forced 'em down, figures the Chief. They took off again Tuesday morning, and were duly reported to Mitchell Field by the Air Observers at Vernon.

And speaking of Wild Geese, Ralph Hazeltine claims he saw a large flock flying south instead of North a few days ago. They were past before he could redirect them, however.

Aged Trucksville Woman is Buried

Mrs. Elizabeth Erb Is Great Loss To Region

With many sorrowing friends and relatives paying a last solemn tribute to a long life of community service and benevolence, funeral services for 92-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Erb were held Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Piatt of Carverton road, Trucksville. Rev. Harry M. Savacool, pastor of Trucksville Methodist Church, officiated. After the ceremonies here, the body of Mrs. Erb was borne to Boyertown, Pa., and laid to rest beside the grave of her husband in Fairview cemetery.

The kindly old soul, one of the best-known residents of this region and hale and hearty almost to her last day, passed away quietly at the home of Mrs. Piatt Sunday morning. Her death followed a brief illness.

Mrs. Erb had lived with her daughter in Trucksville for the past 30 years and was active in Red Cross work and the affairs of Trucksville Methodist Church. Her friendly disposition and willingness to work for the welfare of her community had gained her a wide circle of friends, and her death is a bereavement not only to her family and intimates but to this section as well.

She was born in Pottstown on January 11, 1850, daughter of the late Sarah and Jacob Cristman. She was married at Boyertown to the late Simon F. Erb, who passed away 62 years ago, and lived in Berks County until she moved to this section in 1912.

But, although her early years were spent in Southern Pennsylvania, Mrs. Erb had become as much a part of the Back Mountain Region as any of its natives and considered this section as her real home.

Her one son, Cleo, died six years ago at his home in Woodbury Heights, N. J.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Piatt, she is survived by the following grandchildren: Mrs. Rebecca Grey of Trucksville, Miss Ellen Piatt, a nurse at Camp Forrest, Tenn., Joseph and Daniel Piatt, both of Washington, D. C., and Private Cleo Piatt, stationed at Camp Meade. These great grandchildren also survive: Jean, Daniel and Glen Piatt, Joseph Piatt, Jr., and Maud Grey.

Something new was added to the famous NBC-Blue Network when Herbert Marshall, noted stage and screen star, opened house for the "New Old Gold Show", with Bert Wheeler and Hank Ladd, comedy team; the melodic Merry Macs, and a guest star each week. Show is heard Monday evenings, coast-to-coast.

Defense Sales Off, Claims Postmaster

Though hundreds of patriotic dollars were paid in through the Defense Savings at Dallas Post Office during the Christmas holidays and January, sales of Defense Stamps and Bonds have begun to fall off markedly, Postmaster Joseph Polackey announced this week.

While an area the size of Dallas should average at least 800 in Defense Savings a month, said Mr. Polackey, sales here have been much lower and during February not more than $300 worth of Defense Stamps were purchased.

Defense Stamps are priced at ten cents to a dollar, placing them within easy reach of both adults and children. If local folks bought a half a dollar's worth of stamps apiece each month, more than $700 would go for defense from residents of the borough alone.

Early Birds

Contractor Frank Jackson of Lake township, well-known bird fancier, reports this week that he saw a Blue Bird, a Song Sparrow and two Robins paddling about in the snow out at the lake. So Spring must be somewhere in the offing, in spite of the weather man.

Byron Luce Is Army Major

Will Act As Instructor In Auto Transportation

Byron Luce, until the recent Federal ban on new automobiles, salesman for James R. Oliver, has enlisted in the Motor Transport Corps of the United States Engineers and expects to leave shortly for Camp Holibird, Maryland.

He received a five-hour physical examination last week at Walter Reed Hospital, Baltimore, and passed with flying colors, an accomplishment as pleasing to Mr. Luce, who is forty-five, as the fact that he will be commissioned as a major. Upon induction he will become an instructor in automotive maintenance in the Auto Transport School.

Before obtaining a leave from the Hudson Motor Company to come with Mr. Oliver in May, 1941, Mr. Luce had worked for ten years in northeastern Pennsylvania territory out of the Philadelphia zone office of the company. His past experience ably fits him for his new assignment.

Since coming to Dallas he and Mrs. Luce have made their home on Pioneer avenue. They will move this week to their old home in Dalton where Mrs. Luce will remain while the major is on duty.
