Bedspreads Are Important in Crochet Contest

A square a day is the idea for this appealing bedspread with serene, ladylike distinction. The large scale baroque filet design is fun to do, and nimble fingers can make this work go like magic. Mercerized crochet cotton is used to give it the sturdy wearing and washing qualities which are part of its charm. Start now to crochet this exquisite spread for entry in the Sixth Annual National-wide Crochet Contest, where bedspreads occupy an important place in the final judgments. A National Crochet Champion and 43 "ranking crocheters" will be selected for cash prizes and national honors. Directions for making this bedspread and details of the Contest may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design No. 6055.
