Carolyn Irene Brace Becomes Bride At Lovely Garden Wedding

One of the prettiest weddings of June was that of Carolyn Irene Brace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brace, who became the bride of Loren Freas Fritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lord of Noxen, in the garden of Sunny Brook Farm, Kunkle, Sunday, June 21. Rev. Guy Leinthal of Pittston performed the ceremony. Miss Dorothy Corby of West Pittston played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attractive in floor length dress of marquisette over satin fashioned with fitted bodice, long sleeves and high neck line. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. Her finger tip veil was caught with tiara of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white gardenias, larkspur and baby's breath. Miss Mable Rogers, maid of honor, wore a blue gown and carried pink rose buds. Miss Dorothy Weaver, bridesmaid, chose yellow with red rosebuds and Miss Betty Sweezy aquamarine with yellow rose buds. Jean Doty, junior bride's maid selected pink gown and carried white rose buds and Helen Doty, flower girl, was cunning in green.

Best man was Harold Strohl of Newark, and William Brace, Jr., brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following the ceremony a reception for 90 guests was held in the garden and the couple left for their home in Newark, N. J.

Mrs. Fritz is a graduate of Dallas Township High School in the class of 1942. Mr. Fritz was graduated from Noxen High School and is employed at the CO Two Fire Equipment Company in Newark.
