HEAR THE ROOSTERS CROW

Little Chicks Don't Crow

"Listen To the Roosters Crow." Well maybe you can't hear them this week or next week. Little chicks don't crow and most of the men in the Broiler business in our area right now have sold their mature flocks at good profits and are starting in on new lots.

The interesting thing about this business is that the man or woman who starts it keeps right at it. That's almost proof enough that they are making profits.

We hope you saw the four page color story in Life Magazine last week on the Broiler and Chicken business. If you didn't see it you had better get a copy.

Your nation and the army need additional food supplies to meet the wartime demand. Shortages of beef, pork and other meats are being made up by the valient hen. You can help this effort and make a profit for yourself if you are willing to investigate. Others are making the broiler business an additional source of income.

During the past four weeks five new growers have started flocks. Some of them have built new coops to house them. And along this line we might add that all of those who have raised one or more flocks have added more birds to the new groups they are raising.

We've a market for 25,000 birds a week.

Drop in at the mill and talk it over with us. Then you, too, will like to—

SUPREME ON THE SEAS—AN INSPIRATION TODAY.

IN 1845 THE FIRST OF THE GREAT CLIPPERS—THE RAINBOW—SPREAD HER WHITE WINGS AND "FLEW" TO CHINA AND BACK, FASTER THAN ANY OTHER SHIP COULD MAKE THE ONE-WAY TRIP... AN ENTIRELY NEW DESIGN, AMERICAN CLIPPERS BECAME MISTRESSSES OF THE SEVEN SEAS—THEIR RECORDS NEVER BROKEN BY SAILING SHIPS TO THIS DAY... THEY HAVE BEEN CALLED "AMONG THE GREATEST TRIUMPHS OF HUMAN INGENUITY."

TODAY—EVERY DAY—NEW SHIPS SLIDE DOWN THE WAYS FASTER AND FASTER, TO JOIN AMERICA'S MIGHTY TWO-OCEAN NAVY AND MERCHANT MARINE... AGAIN RECORDS MUST FALL BEFORE THE ONSLAUGHT OF AMERICAN WORK AND THE AMERICAN SPIRIT.
