Hill Crest

Goss Manor

Hill Crest is the most built-up section of Goss Manor. It has a delightful view—1385 feet above sea level at Hildonia and Gordon streets. Beautiful homes, ranging in value from $6,000 to $15,000, are built on lots with frontage up to 200 feet. Hill Crest in Goss Manor is indeed a delightful spot. I have just four choice lots left. I list them here for your information and for your careful consideration.

No. 1. Highland Drive and Sunset Street . . $1500.00

This is a gorgeous spot with 150-foot frontage on Highland Drive and a depth of 250 feet. The high commanding view overlooks Goss Manor Park, Dallas Village and the far distant white rocks on the mountains beyond Wilkes-Barre. Solid rows of trees frame one side and the rear of this lot while pretty white birches are scattered across the lawn. It is a perfect setting for a rambling English cottage with terraces and out-of-door fire place. Cash or 2-year terms.

No. 2 & 3. The Old State Highway (Church Street) each $650.00

Here are two lovely lots located between the Roth and Llewellyn homes. One lot has a frontage of 110 feet, the other a frontage of 115 feet. Dallas Township High School campus is just across the street. Either one of these lots is worth $1,000 and is equivalent to the full down payment on an F. H. A. home costing up to $10,000. Cash or 2-year terms.

No. 4. Sunset Street . . . . $750.00

Here is a desirable spot with 100-foot frontage adjoining the property of John Yapple on Sunset Street. This street is paved and curbed. It is a beautiful double lot and will serve as F. H. A. down payment on a home costing $8,000. Cash or 2-year terms.

If you desire a new home in a select location, then build it in the Hill Crest section of Goss Manor, you'll always enjoy it.
