

Neighborhood Notes And News Of Local Church Doings

Purely Personal

Home Phone 161

Office Phone 300

Joe MacVeigh of Center Hill road spent several days this week in New York City.

Mrs. Clifford Space of Huntsville road spent several days last week in New York City.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hilbert of East Dallas is recovering from pneumonia.

Mrs. S. H. Kellar of Parrish St. is confined to her home with an injured knee which she wrenched while getting out of an automobile.

Mrs. James Wheeler is ill at her home in Shavertown.

H. F. Coon has returned to his home in Carverton, after being a patient at General Hospital.

Mrs. Malcolm Borthwick of Pioneer avenue, Shavertown, will be hostess to Kings Daughters Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Moore who has been ill at her home in East Dallas is greatly improved.

Victor Smith Jr. of Edwardsville, grandson of Mrs. Florence Rusiloski of Huntsville left for active duty with the Army Air Corps on December 1.

Mrs. Guy Leinthal of Pittston spent several days last week with Mrs. Laura Patterson of Lehman avenue. Rev. Leinthal was attending a conference at Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Watson of Shrineview entertained at dinner Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Joseph MacVeigh of Center Hill road and Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Kiefer of Shrineview.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Culver of Machell avenue had as dinner guests on Sunday Mrs. Harry Roat, Arthur Roat, Evelyn Roat and Mrs. Florence Culver of Kingston and Miss Maude Brotherhood of Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. George Ball of Minersville spent several days last week with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kear of Lake street.

Lieutenant John Rinehimer who is stationed at Atlantic City spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rinehimer of Lehman avenue.

Mrs. James Simpson of Lehman, slipped on the ice while going to the mail box and sprained her wrist last week. She is getting along nicely now.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Keller had as dinner guests recently the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. A. J. Garinger and Miss Lina Garinger of Alderson and her sister, Mrs. Alfred G. Smith of Richmond Hill, N. Y.

Mrs. Florence Phillips, Mrs. Robert Quail and Arthur Dungey have accepted government positions at Harrisburg. They will spend the weekend with their families in Dallas.

A number of local women will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Moyer at Forty Fort at a house-warming tomorrow evening. The Moyers are former residents of Dallas.

Richard Ide who submitted to an operation at Nesbitt Hospital some time ago has returned to his home at Huntsville and is getting along nicely. Richard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ide.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schmoll of East Dallas have received word that their son, Glen, has arrived safely over seas.

Howard Culp who has been stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J., spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Frances Culp at Huntsville.

Janet Garinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Garinger of Machell avenue submitted to a tonsil operation at Nesbitt Hospital on Friday. Her cousin, Mrs. Carlo Lacorte, is taking care of her.

William Hibbard of Chester spent the weekend at his home at Harvey's Lake.

Mrs. John Nicholson entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Demunds road Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Arthur Kiefer has been ill at her home on Church street.

Mrs. Samuel Hummel Jr., of Connecticut, has come to make her home with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hummel of Claude street. Mr. Hummel has left for service over seas.

Mrs. Daniel Sutch returned to her home on Center Hill road Sunday after spending two weeks with her family in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. L. L. Richardson will entertain at a dinner party at her home on Terrace street Saturday evening.

Arthur Culver of Machell avenue left on Sunday for Elizabeth, N. J., where he has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. W. Templin of Cemetery street spent the weekend with their mothers, Mrs. Ellen Elliott and Mrs. Mary Templin at Shamokin.

Jasper Kocher was guest of honor at a drop-in party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oberst, Thursday. Jasper left for service in the U. S. Army Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Oberst of Harvey's Lake entertained recently Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Honeywell of Maryland.

M. J. Kocher who has been confined to his home for the past few weeks by illness is able to be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Shotwell entertained the following at a family dinner on Sunday, Mrs. Celia Shotwell, Mr. Harlow Shotwell, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Race and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dietz and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Huey and daughter, Nancy.

Mr. Harlow M. Shotwell of Holyoke, Massachusetts, is spending a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Russell Race spent Saturday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sweppenheiser of Shavertown. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Kunkle and son Allen were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Race Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ingram of Idetown moved to Williamsport recently.

Clarence Smith and Warren Rogers of Trenton, New Jersey, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. James Rogers of Idetown. Mrs. Rogers is greatly improved after several weeks illness.

Patsy Smith has returned to her home in Idetown after spending three weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Frances McDonald in Trenton.

Mrs. E. R. Parrish of Idetown had as Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Schoen of Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Knapp of Kingston and Jean Connell of Forty Fort.

Correction: Miss Marion Gillman, formerly of Idetown, has accepted a position with the Girard Trust Company of Philadelphia.

Corporal Donald Dunn who is stationed at Goldsboro, N. C., is spending a furlough with his mother on Main street.

Mrs. Morgan Wilcox has been ill at her home on Lake street for the past week.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Martha Russ, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Russ of Fernbrook, and Willard Smith, son of Mrs. Ernest Smith of Kingston. Marriage took place June 25, 1942.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas Township High School. Mr. Smith was graduated from Forty Fort High School and is employed by Bartels Brewery.

John Gebler returned to his home in Sayre after attending the funeral of Mrs. Albert Gebler at Alderson.

Florence Rolison Wed To Sgt. John Helfrich

Miss Florence Rolison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rolison of Fernbrook, and Staff Sergeant John Helfrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Helfrich of Cemetery street, were married in St. Therese's Church at Shavertown at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, December 5. Father Eugene Frank performed the ceremony. Attendants were Miss Florence Helfrich and Joseph Wallo.

The bride is a graduate of Dallas Township High School. Staff Sgt. Helfrich was graduated from Dallas Borough High School and had just returned from Hawaii where he was stationed with the U. S. Army at Schofield Barracks at the time of the Pearl Harbor attack. He left Sunday for officers training camp at Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Helfrich will remain here with her family for the present.

Celebrates Tenth Year

Harry Trebilcox was the guest of honor at a tenth birthday dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Trebilcox of Trucksville on Sunday. Those who helped celebrate the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ritter of Forty Fort, Mr. and Mrs. David Lloyd, Jr., and David, 3rd, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trebilcox of Plymouth, the host, hostess and guest of honor.

Mrs. George Stolarick Is Hostess At Dinner

Mrs. George Stolarick entertained members of the Glee Club of Dallas Woman's Club at her home in Lehman Monday evening for dinner. Present were: Mrs. Alan Sanford, director of the club, Mrs. Leonard Harvey, Mrs. Morris Johnson, Mrs. Oswald Griffith, Mrs. Thomas Robinson, Mrs. Harold Payne, Mrs. Raymond Kuhnert, Mrs. Phillip Cheney, Mrs. Fred Eck, Mrs. Edgar Nulton, Miss Mary Jackson, Miss Mary Templin and the hostess.

Entertains Bridge Club

Mrs. Esther Donnelly of Idetown entertained her bridge club Tuesday evening at her home. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Emma Ballany, Mrs. Russell Davis, Mrs. Leona Waters, Mrs. Vangie Jones, Miss Emma Austin, Christine Cocking, Mrs. Mildred Waters, Mrs. Ella Williams and the hostess.

Mrs. James Oliver Is Hostess At Luncheon

Mrs. James Oliver entertained a number of friends at a luncheon at her home on Lake street on Saturday. Guests were Mrs. R. L. Brickel, Mrs. P. P. Dohl, Mrs. Ralph Hallock, Mrs. Lee Gregg, Mrs. Francis Kiefer, Mrs. John Jeter, Mrs. Warden Kunkle, Miss Mary Still, and Mrs. Clifford Space of Dallas; Mrs. Harry Harter of Trucksville; Mrs. William Strous of Kingston; Mrs. William Jeter of Forty Fort and Mrs. George Davey of Wilkes-Barre.

Sophie Salansky Brings Home Seven Point Buck

Proving herself the only Annie Oakley in the Back Mountain section, Sophie Salansky of Jackson made quick work of a seven point buck on Wednesday. Sophie got her deer (not dear) on North Mountain. She dispatched the news to the Post pell mell to quiet the jokers who persist in asking her which one of her brothers did the shooting.

Hostess At Bridge

Miss Gertrude Wilson entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Norton avenue Wednesday evening. Present were Mrs. Arthur Culver, Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Leslie Warhola, Mrs. John Yaple, Mrs. Carl Kuehn, Mrs. J. H. Hauck, Mrs. Harvey McCarthy, and Mrs. Milford Shaver and the hostess.

Hunt At Mehoopany

A number of local men enjoyed their annual deer hunting trip to the cabin of Royal Love at Mehoopany for the opening of the season. They were not lucky enough to bring home any game. Those attending were John Yaple, Harold Flack, Peter Clark, Charles Jones, Fred Kiefer, Dallas; Mark Cronin and Hugh Daron of Luzerne; and Royal Love of Mehoopany.

Entertains Club

Mrs. James Huston entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Norton avenue Wednesday afternoon. Present were Mrs. Charles Jones, Mrs. Daniel Sutch, Mrs. L. L. Richardson and Mrs. Huston.

COLORFUL CROCHETED ACCESSORIES MAKE LOVELY GIFTS

CONSIDER the pleasure and economy of making many of your Christmas gifts. Luxury items find, but the feminine heart still responds to "something lovely to wear". Crocheted jewelry is new, inexpensive and easy to make. Three shades of heavy cotton yarn are used for the matching set of necklace, bracelet and belt. Cotton yarn is also used for the slippers which are gay and pretty as well as comfortable and cozy. Directions for crocheting the jewelry and slippers may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design No. 2106.

the Needlework Department of this

Dallas Woman's Club Collects Silk Stockings

New members who were unable to attend initiation ceremonies at last month's meeting were inducted into the Dallas Woman's Club prior to the business meeting at Shavertown Hose House Wednesday evening. Mrs. Fred Eck, president, presided.

Dr. F. Bud Schooley gave an interesting talk on the plans for and progress made in obtaining our community building. Members were asked to save fats and grease for a period of two months, sell it to the local grocer, and turn the money into the U.S.O. It was announced that a box would be available for silk and nylon stockings at each meeting. Members were urged to bring their own and their neighbors. All must be washed before they are donated.

Christmas carols were sung and gifts distributed by Santa Claus. Mrs. Fred Eck and Mrs. George Stolarick poured at the tea which followed.

Mrs. M. B. Loomis Is Heart Attack Victim

Friends and neighbors in the Back Mountain area were grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. M. B. Loomis, who suffered a heart attack at Athens Saturday night.

Mrs. Loomis, the former Jennie McCarty, was born and reared in Dallas and moved to Athens when she married Mark B. Loomis. She has kept in close contact with her friends in Dallas on her many visits to the home of Mrs. Stella Isaacs at Kunkle. She is survived by her husband.

The funeral services were held from the family home Tuesday afternoon.

Mary Jackson Accepts Position In Maryland

Miss Mary A. Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jackson of Beaumont and 4th grade teacher at Dallas Township Schools, has accepted a position as teacher in the 5th grade at Bethesda, Md., a suburb of Washington, D. C. She will assume her duties there January 4, 1943.

Miss Jackson is a graduate of Kingston Township High School, Mansfield State Teachers College and College Misericordia. She has been a member of the faculty at Dallas Township for the past 4 years where she has been active in all affairs of the school.

She is a member of the Dallas Woman's Club and the Dallas Woman's Glee Club.

Idetown Scouts

Idetown Girl Scouts made plans for their Christmas party and made stuffed dolls and animals for hospitalized children at their meeting Monday after school. Present were Betty Warner, Hazle Garinger, Dorothy Fritz, Elsie J. Ide, Irma Calkins, Jean Ide, Ethel Ide, Evelyn Keller, Loraine Keller, Mrs. Viola Rossman and Miss Elizabeth Sorber.

Locally Grown
CHRISTMAS TREES
$1 and up
Beautiful Spruce Trees
Can be seen afternoons only.
We will also be open Sunday afternoon, Dec. 20. Phone Dallas 555 for information.
GERALD FRANTZ
Huntsville, Pa.

Miss Elizabeth Bunny Becomes Bride Of Michael E. Kuchta

Miss Elizabeth Bunny, daughter of Thomas Bunny of Pinecrest avenue, became the bride of Michael E. Kuchta, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kuchta of Harvey's Lake last evening, Thursday, December 10 in the parsonage of the Alderson Methodist Church. Rev. David Morgan performed the ceremony. Mrs. Lee Gregg was Miss Bunny's only attendant.

The bride is a graduate of Kingston Township High School and has been employed as Traffic Supervisor for the Commonwealth Telephone Company. Mr. Kuchta was graduated from the Lake Township High School and is manager of the Commonwealth Telephone Company at Clarks Summit. For six years previous to his promotion to Clarks Summit he was manager of the local office.

Miss Bertha Walters Is Wed To Sergeant Sheldon Ehret

The marriage of Miss Bertha Walters, daughter of Mrs. Anna Walters of Meeker and Sergeant Sheldon Ehret, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ehret of Lehman took place Monday evening, December 7 at 8 o'clock in the Holy Trinity Lutheran Church at Kingston. Rev. David A.

Menges performed the ceremony. The couple were unattended.

The bride is a graduate of Lehman High School. Mr. Ehret was also graduated from Lehman High School. He entered the army March 1941 and is now stationed at Camp Lockett, Campo, California. He will return to camp Sunday.

Local Women Complete Course At Hospital

Mrs. Floyd Chamberlain of Goss Manor and Mrs. John Hughes Blackman and daughter, Mrs. Robert Harvey of Idetown completed a course of 150 hours practical training at General Hospital, Wednesday. The course is sponsored by the Nurses' Aid of the Red Cross and involves actual nursing in the wards of the hospital. Preliminary to this course students attended a series of lectures at Hotel Sterling under the direction of Mrs. Hortense Knight, registered nurse and instructor in Cornell Medical Center.

Mrs. Chamberlain will start on an advance course of another 150 hours next week.

Huntsville Women End First Course In Nutrition

Twenty women will complete the beginners course in Nutrition sponsored by the Red Cross at Huntsville this evening. Miss Althea Dymond, home economics teacher at Kingston Township has been instructing the group at the home of Mrs. Norman Smith every Friday evening. The course includes 10 lectures. Members of the class are Mrs. Marvin Brown, Mrs. Granville Terry, Mrs. Frances Culp, Mrs. Albert Dadwalader, Mrs. Robert Culp, Mrs. Harry Edwards, Mrs. Gwilym Evans, Mrs. Edward Estock, Mrs. Clarence Elston, Mrs. Ralph Frantz, Mrs. Thomas Johnson, Mrs. George Learn, Mrs. Charles Nuss, Mrs. Walter Palmer, Mrs. Ray Perrigo, Mrs. Norman Smith, Mrs. Barne Tribler, Miss Mildred Bertram, Miss Olive Evans and Miss Ruth Johnson.

Florence Rusiloski Is Sworn In As WAAC

Florence Rusiloski, daughter of Mrs. Frances Rusiloski of Huntsville was sworn into the WAAC Reserve Corps in Philadelphia on December 5 with a group of girls from the Scranton area. She is now waiting to be called to one of the WAAC training camps. Florence has two brothers in the service, Dan who is at Camp Elliott in California and Chet is at Little Creek, Va. She graduated from Lehman High School in the class of 1937 where she was active in sports.

Wins Certificate

Warren Brown who is employed at the Rustless Iron and Steel Company in Baltimore, Md., has been awarded the Army and Navy Certificate of Production. Warren is machinist and crane operator with the company. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown of Parrish street.

Christmas Party

Women of the Rotary will hold their Christmas party at Boyle's Inn at Hillside next Thursday, December 17. Mrs. Paul Warriner is chairman and Mrs. John Nicholson, co-chairman.

Demunds Harmony Club To Meet

The next meeting of Harmony Club will be at the home of Mrs. Glenn Sickler. Capsule friends will be remembered and names revealed. The meeting will be December 16.

... for lasting beauty

FASHIONABLE HAND MADE HOOKED RUGS

These are the Famous MASTERKRAFT Hooked Rugs, handmade by Native American Craftsmen... styled in the modern trend to lend color and warmth to your home. Use them throughout the house... there is a design adaptable to every room and period... oblong and oval shapes. Heavy, thick rugs, made under scientific supervision to give years of service. Make beautiful Christmas gifts as well.

- 36x60-Inch Oblong Hooked Rugs . . . 19.50
- 30x60-Inch Oval Hooked Rugs . . . 19.50
- 24x44-Inch Oval Hooked Rugs . . . 10.50

Rugs, the Second Floor of Beautiful Homethings

Fowler, Dick and Walker The Boston Store

★Wyoming Valley Owned ★Wyoming Valley Managed ★Wyoming Valley Minded

East Dallas Sunday School Class Enjoys Lovely Christmas Party

A Christmas party replete with homely carols and gifts for every body was enjoyed by members of the Ella Moore Sunday School Class at the East Dallas Methodist Church Tuesday evening. Mrs. Austin Friend was in charge of devotions and spoke on Christmas traditions. Mrs. John Hildebrand was re-elected president of the class, Mrs. Bessie Brace, vice president, Mrs. Jeanette Dickinson, treasurer and Mrs. Viola Brace, secretary. The class voted to pay for the church hymnals. Present were Mesdames Harry Howell, Kate Wilson, Maude Wesley, Joseph Patrick, Ralph Weaver, Ben

Brace, Jean Dickinson, Fred Hugh-ey, George Snyder, William Cobleigh, Robert Fowler, Delbert Garinger, Ted Wilson, John Hildebrand, Austin Prynne, Alfred Moore, Carl Gries, Winfield Brace, Helen Ross, Robert Pickett, Victor Canzani, Lucy Weaver, Ralph Mission, Nelson Moore, Wilma Evans, Stanley Moore, Lucy Morgan, Wilson Ryman, Myra Carlin, Larry Swank, Rozella Carlin, Charles Weiss, Bert Brace, John Shook, Ressigue Johnson, Shively and Hadsel. Mrs. Helen Ross was chairman of the affair and Mrs. Stanley Moore and Mrs. Shively her assistants.