

Former Dallas Resident Victim Of Pneumonia

Friends were grieved to hear of the death of Miss Emma Hunter, 94-year-old native of Dallas who died Saturday night at the General Hospital following two days' hospitalization. Miss Hunter broke her hip a few years ago and has been in poor health ever since. She was not seriously ill until a week before her death when she contracted pneumonia.

The last of eleven children, she is survived by many nieces and nephews in this locality, including Mrs. Edith Ide and Lewis Worthington of Idetown, Mrs. C. S. Hildebrandt and Sterling Machell of Dallas, Mrs. Russell Cease and Mrs. Hannah Case of Kingston Township, Mrs. Herbert Riley and Mrs. Ethel Harlos of Lehman. She was a member of the Dallas Methodist Church until moving to Kingston when she transferred her membership to Dorranconet Methodist.

Funeral services were held from the home of her niece, Mrs. Herbert Hollock of Kingston, on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 with Rev. George M. Bell, pastor of the Dorranconet Methodist Church, in charge. Burial was in the Warden Cemetery.

Housewives And Farmer To Serve As Jurors

Three housewives and one farmer from the Back Mountain region were chosen for service as jurors in the Luzerne County Courts during the weeks of March 8th and 15th. Mrs. Maude Sutliff of Jackson Township and Mrs. Earl Tremayne of Shavertown are to serve in the week of March 8th. Mrs. Daniel Crump of Dallas and Edward Gaynor of Lake Township will serve during the week of March 15th. The jurors were drawn by Commissioners Patrick Finn and Roger Howell and Judicial Clerk Robert Cohen last week.

Sunday School, 10 A. M., Evening Gospel Hour, 8 P. M.

We invite you to join with us again on Sunday evening for the gospel hour. Don't think it is a typographical error when you read the title of our evening message, "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition." You won't want to miss this fellowship hour. Pastor K. Elgena.

DALLAS CHURCH NOTES

First Methodist Church, Rev. Austin L. Pryn, Minister. Mrs. Harold Rood, Organist-Director. Church School at 10 A. M. Morning Worship at 11:00. Sermons by the minister. Subject, "The Church Has." This is the third in the series of sermons on "The Church for Today." Junior Sermon, "Sunshine and Shadow".

Youth Fellowship at 6:45. The review of Franz Warfel's "The Song of Bernadette" which David Schmeier was to have given last Sunday evening was postponed and will be given this week.

Evening Worship at 7:30. Another of the popular Picture Sermons will be the feature of this service. Hoffman's "Christ in the Temple" which is one of the most popular of all religious pictures. Practically every Church School and many homes have copies of the picture. This will be a splendid opportunity to become acquainted with the details of the picture and its symbolism. It will mean more to us each time we see it. As usual, the minister will use a colored stereopticon slide in explanation of the details of the picture and a copy of the picture in colors will be given to those who attend the Service.

Wednesday at 7:30 P. M. The Mid-Week Prayer Service. The subject for the minister's Meditation will be "Marks of a Christian".

Thursday—The Choir Rehearsals. Chancel at 4. Junior at 7. Senior at 7:45. Boy Scouts at 7:00.

Friday—The regular meeting of the J. A. B. Class.

Orrville Ramage Buried Today

Stricken With Heart Attack While Reading

Zebulan Orrville Ramage, 69-year-old native of Huntsville, died at his home Tuesday evening, the victim of a heart attack. Mr. Ramage had not been well for the past few years, but was able to get around, putter in his garden and enjoy a good book until the day of his death. An ardent reader, especially of history, he was found sitting in his favorite chair with a book clasped in his hand by his nephew.

The youngest of five children, he was born on May 19, 1873, to Zebulan and Harriet Ann Ramage in the old homestead now occupied by his sister, Mrs. A. R. Holcomb, at Huntsville. A great flower-lover, he worked on the lawns and in the greenhouse of J. N. Conyngham for many years, and was employed by C. F. Terry when he had a greenhouse in Huntsville. In his younger days he attended the Huntsville Christian Church.

Surviving are his sister, Mrs. A. R. Holcomb, and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held from Brickel's Funeral Home, Friday afternoon at 1:00 with Reverend Roswell W. Lyon, pastor of Huntsville Methodist Church, officiating. Interment will be in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

Beaumont Native Dies At Age Of Ninety-Two

Mrs. Gertrude Honeywell, born and reared in the Back Mountain region, died at the home of her nephew, James Crispell last Sunday night after being in poor health for over sixty years.

Ninety-two years ago, on December 12, 1850, she was born to William Henry and Sarah Wright Crispell of Beaumont. There were six in the family, three girls and three boys, including the late Sev Crispell who is remembered by all old timers. Their forefathers came from New York State and settled in Beaumont as farmers. Her husband Harry Honeywell died several years ago.

Mrs. Honeywell had spent the winters at the home of George Roushey in Shavertown and the summers at the home of James Crispell in Noxen for the last sixty years. She was a member of the Shavertown Methodist Church.

Surviving are two brothers, Corey Crispell of Wilkes-Barre and William Crispell of Sweet Valley and several nieces and nephews.

Reverend David Morgan, pastor of the Noxen Methodist Church had charge of the funeral services held Wednesday afternoon at the Crispell home. Burial was in Orcutt's Cemetery.

Drillers Bring Suit Against Luzerne Woman

R. B. Shaver and R. Dean Shaver of Lehman Township, employed as drillers, filed suit in the local courts against Louise Lipovshek of Luzerne, the plaintiffs seeking $270 for drill work and $29.70 for pipe. Plaintiffs allege they were hired by the defendant in September, 1942, to drill a six-inch well at her farm in Lehman. They alleged they proceeded with the drilling to a point 135 feet below the surface when they were ordered by the defendant to stop work. Plaintiffs are represented by Attorney Frank L. Pinola who filed the statement of claim at the prothonotary's office.

Doing double duty as a patriotic uncle is Fay Williams over in Alderson. Last Sunday, January 31, Fay's two nephews, Bud Kern and Tom Garrity, left for the Air Corps. Tom and Bud, age 19 and 20, respectively, are now in the same squadron and flight at Miami Beach, Florida. Probably these boys are best recalled as players on the Laketon basketball team. Before enlistment they were employed by the United States Government as junior mechanics and electricians, with their central base at Middletown.

Mrs. Grace Parsons of Trucksville tacked up a service flag with two stars on it this week. Her one son, Dale, enlisted in the Air Corps and left last Wednesday for Miami Beach, Florida. His brother, Ralph, joined the Navy and went into active duty last Sunday morning.

Chase Farmer Victim Of Stroke

Dies At Home Of Son, H. L. Gates, Monday

Livingston L. Gates, 80-year-old Chase farmer, died Monday evening, the victim of a paralytic stroke, at the home of his son, H. L. Gates.

Mr. Gates was always a farmer until later years, when he contented himself with feeding the chickens, cutting firewood or giving a lift here and there around his son's home.

The son of Chester C. and Angeline Steele Gates, he was born in January 24, 1864 in a log house not far from the place where he died. As a boy he attended Roan School in Jackson Township and later in his life, married Minnie Garrison of Dallas. They had three children, two boys and one girl.

Surviving are his three children, Arthur Gates of Larksville, Mrs. William Corby of Courtdale and H. L. Gates of Chase. There are six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2:00 with interment in the Huntsville Cemetery. Reverend Roswell W. Lyon, pastor of the Huntsville Methodist Church, officiated.
