Dedication Offering To Be Used Many Ways

The Week of Dedication Offering to be received in all Methodist churches on this Sunday, March 7, is to be used in meeting emergencies thrust upon the Church on account of the war. Emergencies in foreign lands multiply daily. The Board of Foreign Missions has been called upon to move hundreds of missionaries from occupied territory, re-equip them, and place them in other fields of service. This has required an extra expenditure of approximately $200,000 and the end is not yet. The distress in war-stricken lands increases daily, and the Methodist Church hastens to extend her ministry of compassion to those who suffer.

War conditions demand new ministries on the home front. We have a service to perform in and around army camps. Churches must be established and our work maintained in scores of industrial centers sprung up in every part of the land. Chaplains are in need of equipment, and literature to make their ministry effective among our men in the services.

The income from the Day of Dedication offering, which it is hoped will amount to $2,000,000 from all of Methodism, will be divided on the basis of percentages fixed by the General Commission on World Service and Finance.

Thank You

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kresge of Parrish street wish to thank neighbors, friends and school children who assisted them in their recent bereavement and those who sent flowers.

"Goodnight, Bill Brady..."

Hello, Bill Brady, 'way out there...

I guess the mailman must be mad at us because he hasn't brought a letter since the day you went away. And if he doesn't ring the doorbell soon, I think my heart will break.

There isn't much to tell, tonight, except—since all my letters seem to go astray, I've found another way to say 'I love you.'

Last night I joined the Red Cross.

I'm not anybody there. Just one more woman—cutting dressings, rolling bandages, packing Red Cross kits—hoping the men we love will never need them, but hoping more that they aren't past the need.

I'll be a Staff Assistant before long, Bill. In a very military uniform. I can hear you chuckle, my darling.

I don't mind the extra hours. To me, time isn't measured by the ticking of a clock—it lags or races with the beating of my heart. So time at work is short, because I know that you would have me very busy. I can hear you say "Chin up, and get on with the job."

Good night, Bill Brady. Out there... somewhere.
