Enjoy Atlantic City

Mrs. Luther Powell, daughter, Judith, and Mrs. Harold Ash and son, Bobby, have returned after spending a week at Atlantic City. Mr. Powell and Mr. Ash went down to the shore on Sunday to accompany them home. They reported crowds at the resort larger than ever, with hotel accommodations at a premium. Restaurants were crowded. There appeared to be ample food for everybody, but long lines of people had to wait for meals because of the manpower shortage.

Last year, Mrs. Ash said, there were 75,000 air cadets, soldiers, and sailors in Atlantic City, but this year that number has dwindled to about 6,000. An especially interesting feature of the trip was a review given by 1,000 coast guardsmen on the boardwalk.

Few people appeared to enjoy the swimming and beach this year because the water was so cold that only the most hardy could stay in for long.
