Kochers Are Visited By Millard's Buddy

Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Kocher, of Parrish street, had a pleasant surprise Sunday afternoon when Pfc. Albert D. Miller, of Scranton, red-haired, freckled-faced, Guadalcanal veteran, dropped in unexpectedly to give them the first news of their son, Millard, they had received since July. Pfc. Miller was Millard's buddy at "boot camp" at Parris Island, and shared a foxhole with him during Guadalcanal. They were both released at the same time and sent to a rest camp, but were separated two months ago when Pfc. Miller was sent home to recover from an attack of malaria. Millard told him before he left for the states to drop in and tell the folks that he was well and "raring to go."

Be It Ever So Humble . . .

And there's nothing like receiving news from home. Ask any Back Mountain boy who receives the Post. That's why we keep asking Kingston Township, Idetown and the other towns to send in news. How about it? Send in a few items about your family this week for your soldier to read. Thanks.
