"Buck" Edwards Visits The Post

"Buck" Edwards, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards, of Huntsville, stopped in to have a chat with The Post staff Tuesday afternoon, while he was home on a fifteen-day furlough. "Buck", a graduate of Lehman, is instructor at the infantry casualty replacement center at Camp Wolters, Texas. He gives the boys seventeen weeks' training, during which they learn to use all weapons of the infantry. Then they're shipped across to replace men in veteran battalions wounded at the front.
